North Viet Charges U.S. Jets Hit Hanoi 2nd Straight Day

Reds Claim Eight Craft Shot Down

Say Bombs Fell In Capital And Killed Women, Children

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) —The Communists charged that U.S. jets raided Hanoi and its suburbs today for the second day in a row. Radio Hanoi declared eight American aircraft, including a pilotless reconnaissance plane, were shot down.

There was no immediate comment from the U.S. Command, which earlier said it could not confirm or deny the Communist claim that American bombs fell inside the North Vietnamese capital Tuesday and that women and children were killed.

A U.S. spokesman said pilot reports of raids against North Vietnam today had not been received at Saigon headquarters.

The Soviet news agency Tass said in a Hanoi dispatch, relayed from Moscow, that American planes raided the city for about an hour and a half.

"As yesterday," the Tass correspondent said, "they bombed the right and left banks of the Red River, the embankment and the area of the bridge linking Hanoi with its suburb Zyalam.

"The air pirates were met with dense antiaircraft fire. Numerous bursts clouded the clear sky. A rocket soared up leaving a white trail behind. I saw a U.S. plane catch fire and a parachute detach from the plane."

Though refusing to confirm or deny Communist accounts of the operations Tuesday, the official U.S. spokesman in Saigon said he had no American reports indicating that bombs landed on the North Vietnamese capital.

The spokesman reported that American bombers attacked a rail yard six miles northeast of Hanoi and a truck depot five miles south of the Red capital. He said both targets were in

2 Colleagues Say 'Step Up War'

Mansfield Urges 45-Day Truce To Set Peace Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield wants the United States to propose a 45-day or longer truce in Vietnam for the purpose of negotiations. But two of his Southern colleagues counter that the war should be stepped up.

The Montana Democrat's comments were among a series made on Vietnam strategy Tuesday.

Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Vietnam, would say nothing about the war as he returned for Christmas and a talk with President Johnson.

Mansfield, long a foe of stepped-up military effort, said the United States should offer a "cease-fire and stand-fast" from Christmas through mid-February in hopes of getting North Vietnamese leaders to negotiate a settlement of the war.

Sens. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., and Ernest F. Hollings, D-S.C., however, called for more military effort.

Hollings met for 25 minutes with Johnson shortly after returning from an inspection trip to the war area.

He urged bombing of 75 more military targets in North Vietnam but admitted, "I don't think I've changed the President's mind."

Stennis told a dinner audience in Jackson, Miss., that a Johnson request for $10 billion in additional war funds this fiscal year would be inadequate. The President has estimated his request of Congress next month might be about $9 billion to $10 billion in supplemental funds.

Stennis urged an all-out military effort and said "much bloody fighting lies ahead and it may take years to win a complete military victory. These guerrillas are far from being defeated."

Barry Goldwater, the 1964 GOP presidential candidate, told a New York news conference he advocates sealing the North Vietnam port of Haiphong by sinking vessels in the narrow channel leading to the harbor. He said he is considering visiting Vietnam early next year.

In another development seemingly aimed at stimulating repatriation of Communist-held U.S. prisoners, the State Department said it probably would send back to North Vietnam one sick and one wounded prisoner.

Officials said only that they were 2 of 19 seamen captured in the Gulf of Tonkin when their torpedo boats were sunk.

Lodge, arriving in Boston from Tokyo, said he "will discuss nothing of substance until after I have talked with the President. But he said he will return to Saigon shortly after Jan. 1 and dismissed as "rumors and day dreams" some reports he will resign.

Students Set Peace March To Cleveland

Rally At Massillon Saturday Night To Get Move Started

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — About 200 Ohio college students plan a seven-day march for peace in Vietnam beginning with a rally here Saturday night and ending with a peace ceremony in Cleveland's Public Square Christmas Eve.

The 50-mile march is being sponsored by the Ohio Methodist Student Movement and will include students from about 10 Ohio colleges and universities.

The adult leader of the group, the Rev. David B. Sagesser of the Indianola Methodist Church in Columbus, said reactions of Methodist congregations along the proposed route have been mixed.

Some churches support the march and are making their facilities available for overnight stops. Others are declining to help.

The Rev. Mr. Sageser said the march is based on resolutions concerning Vietnam adopted by the state and national Methodist student movements.

The state resolution, he said, closely paralleled a strong statement released Nov. 12 by the Council of Bishops of the Methodist Church. That statement asked for a truce in Vietnam and also a conference of church leaders, possibly in Asia.

The Rev. Mr. Sageser said the students will walk 10 miles a day and will stage a rally each night at their overnight stops.

He described the march as "part of the national epidemic" on the Vietnamese situation.

"No one has any answers, but we are not happy with what is happening," he said.

Youngstown Nurses Okay New Contract

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)— Two major Youngstown hospitals which had operated at about 50 per cent of capacity since a walkout by some 350 nurses Dec. 1 began returning to normal today.

The nurses ended their walkout after ratifying a contract Tuesday night with the Youngstown Hospital Association, which operates North and South Side hospitals.

The agreement between the hospital association and the Youngstown General Duty Nurses Association provides a starting pay of $475 a month retroactive to Oct. 1 and a jump to $510 next Oct. 1.

The nurses had turned down an offer of $470 a month before they walked off their jobs. They were demanding starting pay of $480, with increments of $20 a month next March and $30 next December and also wanted a security plan for members of their association.

The association security plan was turned down, but they were granted a maintenance of membership clause.

In addition, surgical nurses on standby were granted $8 a day whether or not they are called in to work. There had been no standby pay before.

The two hospitals, with a total capacity of about 790 patients, dismissed many patients because of the nurses' walkout and admitted only emergency cases. Negotiations broke down Dec. 4 when the hospital association refused to submit the issues to arbitration.

An old barn and an air strip are on the property. The transaction calls for the owner to vacate all structures within 60 days.

Enforced Only By Naval Blockade

Britain Presses Africans To Ease Oil Embargo Bid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Britain sought today to dissuade African members of the U.N. Security Council from pressing for a tight oil embargo of Rhodesia which could only be enforced by a naval blockade of all of Southern Africa.

Britain's Lord Caradon asked for urgent consultation with the Africans after Uganda introduced amendments Tuesday to a British resolution calling for mandatory sanctions against 12 Rhodesian exports.

The amendments call on Britain to "prevent by all means the transport to Southern Rhodesia of oil or oil products."

British Foreign Secretary George Brown told the 15-nation council last week his government would consider applying a limited oil embargo. Britain had in mind, however, a ban that would affect only Rhodesia and not involve a confrontation with Portugal and South Africa, which is Britain's fourth biggest trading partner.

The Africans pointed out that an oil ban only on Rhodesia would be meaningless since both Portugal and South Africa have said they would continue supplying the rebel regime of Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith. Both ship by overland routes.

British sources said the only way to stop this trade would be to bomb the land routes or to stretch a naval blockade from the Congo, on Africa's west coast, all the way around the southern tip of the continent to the northern border of Portuguese Mozambique, on the east coast.

Western sources expressed doubt that the council would approve such a drastic proposal. They predicted that Britain would use its veto if the Africans mustered enough affirmative votes.

Richard Roach Honored

Widow Of City Navy Hero Given Silver Star Medal

One of the nation's highest military honors — the Silver Star — has been awarded to Naval Hospital Corpsman Richard Roach of East Liverpool, who was killed in action in Vietnam June 20.

Mrs. Mary Birch Roach of Baxter Ave., his widow, was presented the medal by Navy officers at the home Tuesday afternoon.

The award, signed by Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze, cited Corpsman Roach for "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity in action."

The Navy man, son of Mrs. Dale Haney of 700 Riley Ave. and Richard Roach, was on a patrol with a Marine unit when a fire fight took place and he was struck in the chest by a Viet Cong bullet.

He had attended East Liverpool High School and joined the Navy in September 1963.

Corpsman Roach also received the Vietnam Service medal and the Purple Heart award.

The citation for the Silver Star reads:

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity in action on June 20 while serving as a corpsman with Co. B, 3rd Reconnaissance Bn., 3rd Marine Division. As a member of a 43-man patrol which came under heavy enemy fire from the front, rear and both flanks while penetrating deep into Viet Cong territory, Hospitalman Roach displayed outstanding courage and initiative during the ensuing fire fight in which eight Marines were wounded.

Why Pick On Highways?

The federal government's $700 million cutback in the nation's highway program for this year is meeting with considerable consternation among (1) those who use highways (2) those who build them, and (3) political leaders who believe our highway program is moving too slow.

The cutback, which involves $40 million in Ohio, was initiated by President Johnson. He said the move would help in the fight against inflation and would offer some relief to the Vietnam situation.

CERTAINLY WE cannot expect to be as well informed in all facets of our economy and in the Vietnam needs as is President Johnson. But, we do believe we are as knowledgeable in some aspects as some of his advisers.

We know, for instance, that our highway construction program is moving at a much slower pace than is necessary for it to keep up with the burgeoning number of new autos, traucks and buses that are being added every day.

We are aware that our highway construction program was halted during all of World War II. In fact, until the Federal Interstate Highway Act came into being in 1956 we had had virtually no highway construction for the preceding 16 years.

Now we have the paradox of auto manufacturers pulling out all the stops to sell all the cars they can to keep their profits coming in and their employe payrolls up. Motorists in many more families are adding second and third cars to their "stables."

WITH THE supposed affluency of the Great Society, other tangents of our economy are going full pace, too, with commodities to move on the nation's highways along with normal traffic plus an increasing amount of war materiel.

At this state of the game, and we must call it that, we wonder exactly what is responsible for the presidential cutback at the expense of the nation's highways.

Federal interstate highway funds cannot be spent for the war effort, or any purpose other than highway construction.

We believe cutbacks in other areas might be more in order.

Public Pays As Public Wants

What is causing all the turmoil in our city, state and nation today?

It's simply people and their demands.

Too often, we find that everybody wants everything but they want someone else to pay for it.

But what we all have a tendency to forget is that eventually that someone else is us.

Whether it's more money for schools, for the city, township, county or state, eventually the "buck" isn't passed back to us, but rather, it must be taken from us.

The Great Society, the campaign for kindergartens, for more law enforcement officers, new highways, slum clearance, a community swimming pool, you name it. They all must be paid for by someone, and you know who that someone must be—the taxpayer.

The need for more taxes will continue to increase as long as individuals and special interest groups press government and education administrators at all levels to provide more and more to meet our demands.

So, let us quit kidding ourselves that anyone is getting anything for nothing, or that someone else is going to pick up the tab for our demands. In the final analysis, we, the taxpayers, and that includes all of us, must pay the public bills.

Sometimes, our elected officials, in an effort to convince us they are doing a fine job for us, initiate projects they believe we need, whether we have asked for them or not. Yet, when the tax bills come in, we must pay the piper.

Whether it's a real estate tax, city, state or federal income tax, personal property tax, or some type of license or fee, it's the public — the taxpayer, both large and small—who finances all public services and governmental programs.

Hoping For Hit

Advent of the actor-turned politician era shows still another face of the American public.

Before this new era, successful candidates for high office usually had a solid background in politics. Experience counted a great deal in final summation. That is no longer the case.

Well-known stars have had a lot of exposure but little experience in practical politics.

Star status should not render anyone ineligible to hold office, but neither should it insure election.

Ronald Reagan, California's new governor-elect, is the prime example of a show business personality being elected to a responsible position without previous government experience.

The fortunes of future stars in the political spectrum may depend upon how successful Reagan is during his term.

If he distinguishes himself, others will be able to point to his record while campaigning.

Should he prove to be an unpopular governor, public confidence in the ability of actors as politicians would be undermined.

Then the day of the stars would begin to fade.

All actors with any political ambitions at all are pulling for Reagan's show to be a hit and garner the acclaim of critics.

You Gotta Believe It

By Truman Twill

I wish the Pompous Asses of our Great Society would quit telling us Unidentified Flying Objects don't exist.

The PAs do not know what they are talking about. They never do. That's why they know everything. They can no more prove Unidentified Flying Objects don't exist than they can prove that Extra Sensory Perception doesn't exist. Or elves. Or anything else.

What they can prove and do prove tirelessly is that our society is full of closed minds which keep shutting doors to exclude everything they do not want to think about.

These closed minds have shut doors on disintegration of atoms, circulation of blood, the germ theory of disease, effectual measures to control the spread of social disease, public highways, pure food and drug laws and regulation of the securities business.

They have clenched their teeth and denied the possibility of flight, control of narcotics, space exploration and photographs of the far side of the moon.

They know it would be impossible for anything to exist that they cannot comprehend. Their world is limited to the narrow space between their ears, likewise the universe and the appurtenances thereof.

Everything in common use and sight today was once adjudged impossible by the Pompous Asses, who have had to be guided and goaded along the course of human history to keep them from coming to a dead end.

This is why I wish they would not slam the door on UFOs. Honestly, isn't it time they joined the 20th century?

They jeered at the first autos . . . "Get a horse!"

They called the Wright brothers crazy auto mechanics.

They don't want to go to the moon and therefore don't want anyone else to go there.

They don't want anyone from outer space to come here.

And that's why I have to believe in UFOs.

Once there was a man who had a brother who knew everything about everything. "Knock it off," he would say when someone tried to tell him something out of the ordinary. "I won't buy your crazy idea."

So one day the man bought a horse and asked some friends to help him take the horse up stairs to the bathroom, where they put it into the bathtub and tethered it there. "I'm going to make that damfool brother of mine eat his words just once," the man explained. "When he comes home I'm going to tell him there's a horse in the bathtub."

"Yeah, yeah," sneered his brother when he came home. "Another one of your crazy ideas!"

So the man took his know-it-all brother by the ear and marched him upstairs to the bathroom. He kicked open the door, shoved his brother inside and shouted. "There, you baboon, for once you gotta believe it!"

Super Sleuth

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Was this the moonshiner who made the whisky found in the cans beside the still? He wasn't there when the government agents found the cans. But he was tried and convicted.

The soil on the cans and the soil on his gloves were found to be the same when they were sent to a laboratory in the basement of the Internal Revenue Service building in Washington for analysis.

This laboratory, now about three and a half years old, is one of the most sophisticated crime detection centers in the country.

IT IS STILL in its developing stage, with a lot to learn, but it is learning, under the direction of Dr. Maynard Pro. It has not been widely publicized and probably few employes in the IRS building ever heard of it.

If they did, and wandered down to the basement, they might miss the inconspicuous sign on one of the doors which simply says: "Newtron Activation Analysis."

The original idea was to help the government fight bootleggers. But its work steadily expands. Now state police departments come there with crime problems, along with post office inspectors and the Treasury Department's own Secret Service and Narcotics Bureau.

State and federal courts have accepted evidence from the laboratory.

As an example of searching for certainty, take the question, in simplified language, of proving a certain bullet made a certain hole in a piece of cloth, say a man's coat.

When a cartridge explodes, firing a bullet, gases leave a residue on the bullet and some of this is left on the cloth. By making both the bullet and the cloth radioactive, which means activating in an atomic way various kinds of particles in both, the scientists try to determine whether the particles activated in both are identical.

HERE ARE some of the other areas the IRS laboratory gets into, although only a fraction of them:

Take a piece of hair found on the cuff of a man's pants and a hair taken from the head of a woman he is suspected of killing. Everyone's hair has a peculiarity of its own because of differences in diet, climate, and so on.

Or take a case of attempted rape where the accused man claimed to be somewhere else instead of at the scene of the alleged crime. As part of the prosecution, soil found on his shoes was sent to the laboratory where it was compared with soil taken from the woman's yard and with soil taken from the place where he said he had been. He was convicted.

In short, practically everything has its own peculiarity.

'You Have A Bandaid Handy-I Hope!'

Anti-Strike Guessing Game

By Victor Riesel

WASHINGTON — The passionate national pastime here these days is the furious preparation of advice to President Johnson on how to avoid strikes.

Victor Riesel

Everybody's doing it. Mostly in secret. On orders, it's the rage in the Labor Department, naturally; in the Commerce Department, of course, and in the State Department surprisingly.

For weeks, everybody has been trying to crack the mystery of the identity of those in the brain-trust cell entrusted with developing the formula which would prevent another multi-billion dollar transit strike, an airline stoppage, railroad paralysis and an auto shutdown.

What made all the sleuths distraught, it can now be reported here, is the fact there are two such major brain trusts and one anonymous band of technicians all reporting back to the harassed young White House account executive in charge of trouble—Joe Califano.

ONE FORMULA SEEKER is Under Secretary of State Nick Katzenbach, who until recently was attorney general.

Katzenbach's secret assignment is a sign of the pressure from President Johnson—for the former is second only to Dean Rusk in the State Department and has been spending considerable time briefing himself on the diplomatic game. Now he has had to take time out, surround himself with a trio of university professors, including Harvard's John Dunlop, and attempt to do the impossible—namely, come up with a formula for averting emergency national strikes without inflaming labor's legions into a vast industrial war.

There is a second team made up of the urbane Labor Secretary Wirtz, the anonymous technicians—but not Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara.

Assisting the Stevensonian Willard Wirtz is the fatigued, usually genial, but now growling assistant secretary of labor for labor-management relations, James Reynolds. The other week he traveled away up to Arden House (N.Y.) where the American Arbitration Association was running a "think session" for professorial types.

AFTER LISTENING, Reynolds flash-fired by telling the concentrated assemblage of brains that they had talked and talked and had not come up with one single idea for settling a picket line dispute, much less a national strike affecting the health and welfare of the U.S.

There really is a third force in all this—one which moves the entire matter onto the world scene—in the person of the ambassador to the U.N., Arthur Goldberg. He has talked to the President about it all and later in January will take a personal hand in briefing the nation's mediators on how to really settle mass strikes before they start.

When all this intellectual pushing and shoving is described as secret, it must be reported that it's secret (until now) only to the public. Labor's leaders know most of what's going on because everybody hastens to call them on their private numbers. And they don't like it one bit.

FURTHERMORE, the nation's policy-making industrialists know about it. They, too, have private numbers. And they don't like it one bit either—except in the fields of railroads, trucking and airlines.

The labor leaders know what's going on because they have former officials now very high in government.

The businessmen know about it because Secretary of Commerce Connor has asked them to come up with ideas for the President's consideration. This word has passed on by Mr. Connor to the industrial relations committees of the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) and the National Chamber of Commerce.

These groups will tell Mr. Connor they want the government to stay out of free collective bargaining. In fact, W. P. (Gully) Gullander, permanent NAM president, already has communicated with Jack Connor.

The NAM would like the government to keep its hands off because any more towards fact finding, national boards, etc., etc., will result in compulsory arbitration—and industry just does not want government boards settling matters.

ON THIS ISSUE the NAM and the C. of C. will line up with the AFL-CIO.

But the studies go on should the President have the power to seize vital struck plants and transportation systems; should he have the power to end a strike by simple court injunction; should he set up a National Emergency Disputes Board or should he just do nothing but sit and reason with the parties.

That's the arsenal of weapons you hear so much about.

But all the conferencing is unnecessary.

There alraady is a report on averting strikes which could injure the national interest.

It was neatly and unanimously put together and finally issued on May 1, 1962, by a most prestigious Presidential Advisory Committee headed by Dave Cole, easily one of the land's most rational and experienced labor-management mediating practioners and theorists.

It's no secret document-just a forgotten one called "Free and Responsible Collective Bargaining and Industrial Peace." Underwriting it were, among others, Joseph Block, head of Inland Steel, Dave Dubinsky, labor's own Mosiac philosopher, Willard Wirtz, Richard Reynolds, Walter Reuther and Clark Kerr.

So why all the fury? A summit conference on social responsibility—open to the public—would let out the mystery and let in some fresh air, especially from the public.

This 'n That

Australia is the smallest continent in the world. It is about the same size as the United States, but has fewer people than the state of New York. And it is the only continent that has a single national government.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I attended the Wayne Home League school meeting at the Gavers Grange as a parent protesting the way they were going to schedule our children in the Southern Local School District.

I evidently protested the loudest as I wound up being nominated to the citizens' committee to check the school books, which we did and found them to be in order.

We then called another meeting to tell the people what we learned, which was that the books were okay, and that the school obviously was in financial trouble. We explained this to the people as best we could. The minority of them intimated that they didn't believe what we had learned even after we had been sent to do the job as representatives appointed by them to do so.

The Southern Local District is our school, and as a parent and a taxpayer believe that I myself can afford the tax boost because I love my children enough to believe that they should be educated by the best that we can afford for them.

We take our children to church to give them their spiritual needs and fill their physical needs to the best that we can afford. And yet we don't care whether their brain develops along with their bodies or not.

Without this education they will be lucky to dig a ditch. But who would hire them? We have machines to do that, so let's get behind this special election and the levy so our children will be the ones to run those machines. The school buildings are not paid for, but we don't and can't say, "Well let them go. Who needs them?" If I broke my leg and it cost me $1,400 to get it fixed or $500 to get it cut off, I know good and well it would not be cut off. So why abandon the school buildings and our children?

If the special election and levy does not go through and they reschedule our school as the school board intends to do, this is what one can expect: we come home from work and right away jump into doing the chores our children normally do, and when we are finished we sit down to eat and look across the table to see two or three vacant chairs across from us. Remember that we could have saved them and ourselves this trouble. Would you want your wife cooking in shifts? Or never be able to go anywhere as a family?

I don't want this for my family. For those of you who don't want this either, I am proud of you. For those who don't care about your children, I am thoroughly disgusted with and I feel that myself and the citizens' committee have wasted our time and yours.

Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — O. C. Reynolds of Chester, justice of the peace, and Ralph Savre of East Liverpool returned from a three-day hunting trip in Cameron County, Pa., where Savre bagged a deer.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — John M. Koos of Elysian Way was pledged to Theta Delta Chi fraternity at Brown University, Providence, R.I.

The Wellsville Bible Study Club observed its silver anniversary with a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. W. C. Weekley on 9th St.

Mrs. J. A. Dimmerling and daughter Lois of College St. concluded a six - week visit in Los Angeles.

TEN YEARS AGO — The Board of Trustees of the Calvary Methodist Church filed an application in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon for permission to sell its parsonage at 1120 Vine St.

Donald Miller succeeded Carl Drummond as president of the Wellsville Volunteer Fire Department.

Master Builders

Master builders of the insect kingdom erect skyscrapers, air - condition their apartment houses and design cozy camouflaged bungalows.

Social insects, relying on the highly disciplined group to make up for their weakness as individuals, tackle the most ambitious projects, the National Georgraphic Society says.

African termites build towering fortresses, some 20 feet tall, with interiors as well planned as those of a modern office building. Most members of the colony are workers, whose job is to repair and extend the network of passages and highways.

"Soldier termites are dedicated to the defense of the nest," the program says. "Their powerful jaws are so large that they cannot feed themselves and must be fed by workers."

In the United States, most wood-eating termites live in vast underground complexes, some linked to the surface by ventilation tubes. These insects shun light; if it becomes necessary for them to use exposed areas where tunneling is impossible, they will bridge the gap with a covered arcade made of wood fiber and saliva.

We know, for instance, that our highway construction program is moving at a much slower pace than is necessary for it to keep up with the burgeoning number of new autos, traucks and buses that are being added every day.

We are aware that our highway construction program was halted during all of World War II. In fact, until the Federal Interstate Highway Act came into being in 1956 we had had virtually no highway construction for the preceding 16 years.

Now we have the paradox of auto manufacturers pulling out all the stops to sell all the cars they can to keep their profits coming in and their employe payrolls up. Motorists in many more families are adding second and third cars to their "stables."

WITH THE supposed affluency of the Great Society, other tangents of our economy are going full pace, too, with commodities to move on the nation's highways along with normal traffic plus an increasing amount of war materiel.

At this state of the game, and we must call it that, we wonder exactly what is responsible for the presidential cutback at the expense of the nation's highways.

Federal interstate highway funds cannot be spent for the war effort, or any purpose other than highway construction.

We believe cutbacks in other areas might be more in order.

Public Pays As Public Wants

What is causing all the turmoil in our city, state and nation today?

It's simply people and their demands.

Too often, we find that everybody wants everything but they want someone else to pay for it.

But what we all have a tendency to forget is that eventually that someone else is us.

Whether it's more money for schools, for the city, township, county or state, eventually the "buck" isn't passed back to us, but rather, it must be taken from us.

The Great Society, the campaign for kindergartens, for more law enforcement officers, new highways, slum clearance, a community swimming pool, you name it. They all must be paid for by someone, and you know who that someone must be—the taxpayer.

The need for more taxes will continue to increase as long as individuals and special interest groups press government and education administrators at all levels to provide more and more to meet our demands.

So, let us quit kidding ourselves that anyone is getting anything for nothing, or that someone else is going to pick up the tab for our demands. In the final analysis, we, the taxpayers, and that includes all of us, must pay the public bills.

Sometimes, our elected officials, in an effort to convince us they are doing a fine job for us, initiate projects they believe we need, whether we have asked for them or not. Yet, when the tax bills come in, we must pay the piper.

Whether it's a real estate tax, city, state or federal income tax, personal property tax, or some type of license or fee, it's the public — the taxpayer, both large and small—who finances all public services and governmental programs.

Hoping For Hit

Advent of the actor-turned politician era shows still another face of the American public.

Before this new era, successful candidates for high office usually had a solid background in politics. Experience counted a great deal in final summation. That is no longer the case.

Well-known stars have had a lot of exposure but little experience in practical politics.

Star status should not render anyone ineligible to hold office, but neither should it insure election.

Ronald Reagan, California's new governor-elect, is the prime example of a show business personality being elected to a responsible position without previous government experience.

The fortunes of future stars in the political spectrum may depend upon how successful Reagan is during his term.

If he distinguishes himself, others will be able to point to his record while campaigning.

Should he prove to be an unpopular governor, public confidence in the ability of actors as politicians would be undermined.

Then the day of the stars would begin to fade.

All actors with any political ambitions at all are pulling for Reagan's show to be a hit and garner the acclaim of critics.

You Gotta Believe It

By Truman Twill

I wish the Pompous Asses of our Great Society would quit telling us Unidentified Flying Objects don't exist.

The PAs do not know what they are talking about. They never do. That's why they know everything. They can no more prove Unidentified Flying Objects don't exist than they can prove that Extra Sensory Perception doesn't exist. Or elves. Or anything else.

What they can prove and do prove tirelessly is that our society is full of closed minds which keep shutting doors to exclude everything they do not want to think about.

These closed minds have shut doors on disintegration of atoms, circulation of blood, the germ theory of disease, effectual measures to control the spread of social disease, public highways, pure food and drug laws and regulation of the securities business.

They have clenched their teeth and denied the possibility of flight, control of narcotics, space exploration and photographs of the far side of the moon.

They know it would be impossible for anything to exist that they cannot comprehend. Their world is limited to the narrow space between their ears, likewise the universe and the appurtenances thereof.

Everything in common use and sight today was once adjudged impossible by the Pompous Asses, who have had to be guided and goaded along the course of human history to keep them from coming to a dead end.

This is why I wish they would not slam the door on UFOs. Honestly, isn't it time they joined the 20th century?

They jeered at the first autos . . . "Get a horse!"

They called the Wright brothers crazy auto mechanics.

They don't want to go to the moon and therefore don't want anyone else to go there.

They don't want anyone from outer space to come here.

And that's why I have to believe in UFOs.

Once there was a man who had a brother who knew everything about everything. "Knock it off," he would say when someone tried to tell him something out of the ordinary. "I won't buy your crazy idea."

So one day the man bought a horse and asked some friends to help him take the horse up stairs to the bathroom, where they put it into the bathtub and tethered it there. "I'm going to make that damfool brother of mine eat his words just once," the man explained. "When he comes home I'm going to tell him there's a horse in the bathtub."

"Yeah, yeah," sneered his brother when he came home. "Another one of your crazy ideas!"

So the man took his know-it-all brother by the ear and marched him upstairs to the bathroom. He kicked open the door, shoved his brother inside and shouted. "There, you baboon, for once you gotta believe it!"

Super Sleuth

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Was this the moonshiner who made the whisky found in the cans beside the still? He wasn't there when the government agents found the cans. But he was tried and convicted.

The soil on the cans and the soil on his gloves were found to be the same when they were sent to a laboratory in the basement of the Internal Revenue Service building in Washington for analysis.

This laboratory, now about three and a half years old, is one of the most sophisticated crime detection centers in the country.

IT IS STILL in its developing stage, with a lot to learn, but it is learning, under the direction of Dr. Maynard Pro. It has not been widely publicized and probably few employes in the IRS building ever heard of it.

If they did, and wandered down to the basement, they might miss the inconspicuous sign on one of the doors which simply says: "Newtron Activation Analysis."

The original idea was to help the government fight bootleggers. But its work steadily expands. Now state police departments come there with crime problems, along with post office inspectors and the Treasury Department's own Secret Service and Narcotics Bureau.

State and federal courts have accepted evidence from the laboratory.

As an example of searching for certainty, take the question, in simplified language, of proving a certain bullet made a certain hole in a piece of cloth, say a man's coat.

When a cartridge explodes, firing a bullet, gases leave a residue on the bullet and some of this is left on the cloth. By making both the bullet and the cloth radioactive, which means activating in an atomic way various kinds of particles in both, the scientists try to determine whether the particles activated in both are identical.

HERE ARE some of the other areas the IRS laboratory gets into, although only a fraction of them:

Take a piece of hair found on the cuff of a man's pants and a hair taken from the head of a woman he is suspected of killing. Everyone's hair has a peculiarity of its own because of differences in diet, climate, and so on.

Or take a case of attempted rape where the accused man claimed to be somewhere else instead of at the scene of the alleged crime. As part of the prosecution, soil found on his shoes was sent to the laboratory where it was compared with soil taken from the woman's yard and with soil taken from the place where he said he had been. He was convicted.

In short, practically everything has its own peculiarity.

Anti-Strike Guessing Game

By Victor Riesel

WASHINGTON — The passionate national pastime here these days is the furious preparation of advice to President Johnson on how to avoid strikes.

Victor Riesel

Everybody's doing it. Mostly in secret. On orders, it's the rage in the Labor Department, naturally; in the Commerce Department, of course, and in the State Department surprisingly.

For weeks, everybody has been trying to crack the mystery of the identity of those in the brain-trust cell entrusted with developing the formula which would prevent another multi-billion dollar transit strike, an airline stoppage, railroad paralysis and an auto shutdown.

What made all the sleuths distraught, it can now be reported here, is the fact there are two such major brain trusts and one anonymous band of technicians all reporting back to the harassed young White House account executive in charge of trouble—Joe Califano.

ONE FORMULA SEEKER is Under Secretary of State Nick Katzenbach, who until recently was attorney general.

Katzenbach's secret assignment is a sign of the pressure from President Johnson—for the former is second only to Dean Rusk in the State Department and has been spending considerable time briefing himself on the diplomatic game. Now he has had to take time out, surround himself with a trio of university professors, including Harvard's John Dunlop, and attempt to do the impossible—namely, come up with a formula for averting emergency national strikes without inflaming labor's legions into a vast industrial war.

There is a second team made up of the urbane Labor Secretary Wirtz, the anonymous technicians—but not Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara.

Assisting the Stevensonian Willard Wirtz is the fatigued, usually genial, but now growling assistant secretary of labor for labor-management relations, James Reynolds. The other week he traveled away up to Arden House (N.Y.) where the American Arbitration Association was running a "think session" for professorial types.

AFTER LISTENING, Reynolds flash-fired by telling the concentrated assemblage of brains that they had talked and talked and had not come up with one single idea for settling a picket line dispute, much less a national strike affecting the health and welfare of the U.S.

There really is a third force in all this—one which moves the entire matter onto the world scene—in the person of the ambassador to the U.N., Arthur Goldberg. He has talked to the President about it all and later in January will take a personal hand in briefing the nation's mediators on how to really settle mass strikes before they start.

When all this intellectual pushing and shoving is described as secret, it must be reported that it's secret (until now) only to the public. Labor's leaders know most of what's going on because everybody hastens to call them on their private numbers. And they don't like it one bit.

FURTHERMORE, the nation's policy-making industrialists know about it. They, too, have private numbers. And they don't like it one bit either—except in the fields of railroads, trucking and airlines.

The labor leaders know what's going on because they have former officials now very high in government.

The businessmen know about it because Secretary of Commerce Connor has asked them to come up with ideas for the President's consideration. This word has passed on by Mr. Connor to the industrial relations committees of the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) and the National Chamber of Commerce.

These groups will tell Mr. Connor they want the government to stay out of free collective bargaining. In fact, W. P. (Gully) Gullander, permanent NAM president, already has communicated with Jack Connor.

The NAM would like the government to keep its hands off because any more towards fact finding, national boards, etc., etc., will result in compulsory arbitration—and industry just does not want government boards settling matters.

ON THIS ISSUE the NAM and the C. of C. will line up with the AFL-CIO.

But the studies go on should the President have the power to seize vital struck plants and transportation systems; should he have the power to end a strike by simple court injunction; should he set up a National Emergency Disputes Board or should he just do nothing but sit and reason with the parties.

That's the arsenal of weapons you hear so much about.

But all the conferencing is unnecessary.

There alraady is a report on averting strikes which could injure the national interest.

It was neatly and unanimously put together and finally issued on May 1, 1962, by a most prestigious Presidential Advisory Committee headed by Dave Cole, easily one of the land's most rational and experienced labor-management mediating practioners and theorists.

It's no secret document-just a forgotten one called "Free and Responsible Collective Bargaining and Industrial Peace." Underwriting it were, among others, Joseph Block, head of Inland Steel, Dave Dubinsky, labor's own Mosiac philosopher, Willard Wirtz, Richard Reynolds, Walter Reuther and Clark Kerr.

So why all the fury? A summit conference on social responsibility—open to the public—would let out the mystery and let in some fresh air, especially from the public.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I attended the Wayne Home League school meeting at the Gavers Grange as a parent protesting the way they were going to schedule our children in the Southern Local School District.

I evidently protested the loudest as I wound up being nominated to the citizens' committee to check the school books, which we did and found them to be in order.

We then called another meeting to tell the people what we learned, which was that the books were okay, and that the school obviously was in financial trouble. We explained this to the people as best we could. The minority of them intimated that they didn't believe what we had learned even after we had been sent to do the job as representatives appointed by them to do so.

The Southern Local District is our school, and as a parent and a taxpayer believe that I myself can afford the tax boost because I love my children enough to believe that they should be educated by the best that we can afford for them.

We take our children to church to give them their spiritual needs and fill their physical needs to the best that we can afford. And yet we don't care whether their brain develops along with their bodies or not.

Without this education they will be lucky to dig a ditch. But who would hire them? We have machines to do that, so let's get behind this special election and the levy so our children will be the ones to run those machines. The school buildings are not paid for, but we don't and can't say, "Well let them go. Who needs them?" If I broke my leg and it cost me $1,400 to get it fixed or $500 to get it cut off, I know good and well it would not be cut off. So why abandon the school buildings and our children?

If the special election and levy does not go through and they reschedule our school as the school board intends to do, this is what one can expect: we come home from work and right away jump into doing the chores our children normally do, and when we are finished we sit down to eat and look across the table to see two or three vacant chairs across from us. Remember that we could have saved them and ourselves this trouble. Would you want your wife cooking in shifts? Or never be able to go anywhere as a family?

I don't want this for my family. For those of you who don't want this either, I am proud of you. For those who don't care about your children, I am thoroughly disgusted with and I feel that myself and the citizens' committee have wasted our time and yours.

Master Builders

Master builders of the insect kingdom erect skyscrapers, air - condition their apartment houses and design cozy camouflaged bungalows.

Social insects, relying on the highly disciplined group to make up for their weakness as individuals, tackle the most ambitious projects, the National Georgraphic Society says.

African termites build towering fortresses, some 20 feet tall, with interiors as well planned as those of a modern office building. Most members of the colony are workers, whose job is to repair and extend the network of passages and highways.

"Soldier termites are dedicated to the defense of the nest," the program says. "Their powerful jaws are so large that they cannot feed themselves and must be fed by workers."

In the United States, most wood-eating termites live in vast underground complexes, some linked to the surface by ventilation tubes. These insects shun light; if it becomes necessary for them to use exposed areas where tunneling is impossible, they will bridge the gap with a covered arcade made of wood fiber and saliva.

Arthur Doak, chairman of the civic and community affairs committee, discussed a meeting in mid-November which was addressed by David Brown, an East Liverpool native who now is city administrator of South El Monte, Calif. Brown discussed community planning and improvements for members of Doak's committee, along with city officials and representatives of the Community Improvement Corp.

Trial Enters 2nd Day In Mass Assault Case

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The trial of 13 members of a motorcycle club accused in the mass assault of an 18-year-old girl entered its second day today.

A jury of nine women and three men was picked Tuesday in Allegheny County Criminal Court.

The defendants, who belonged to a club known as the "Chosen Few" or "Chain Gang," are charged with attacking the girl at a remote spot along the Ohio River at Leetsdale the night of Aug. 11.

Dog And Training Program Made Goal

Moose Project Aids Blind

FLOYD M. HALL, drive chairman, holds the container which will be used in the campaign to obtain a seeing-eye dog for an East Liverpool area blind person as Mayor George Willshaw deposits a label.

A deserving blind person in East Liverpool, Wellsville, Chester or Newell has an opportunity to obtain a seeing-eye dog and the proper training for its use under a civic program being sponsored by the Moose Lodge here.

The project, known as "Operation Pilot Guide Dog," is being carried out in cooperation with the Pilot Guide Dog Foundation of Chicago and a nationally-known food organization.

Floyd M. Hall, area chairman, said the foundation is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing pilot guide dogs and training without cost to the trainee.

SERVICES provided include: Four months training of the dog; four weeks attendance at the foundation by the dog and blind student; round-trip transportation to and from the training center, and room and board and all training expenses during the four-week period.

Funds for the program are provided through a label redemption program offered by the Perk Foods Co., which redeems all the labels of its dog food products mailed to the foundation.

Hall points out that "while it isn't likely that an individual lodge would collect sufficient labels, it is possible that the goal can be achieved through an area - wide program such as that under way here."

THE PROGRAM was launched in January 1961 by the Department of Civic Affairs of the Loyal Order of Moose at the lodge's national headquarters in Moosehart, Ill.

The Moose scholarships are valued at $1,500, Hall said, "the actual cost to make a blind master and his guide dog a working team."

Hall said that the 5th District of the Maryland - Delaware - District of Columbia Moose Association already has provided one scholarship and now is working toward fulfillment of the second.

The labels may be deposited in the container on the Diamond or turned over to any member of the lodge, he said.

Mrs. Kennedy Makes Effort To Bar Book's Publication

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy has served a summons on Look magazine and the publishing firm of Harper & Row in an apparent effort to block publication of a book about her late husband's death.

Author of the book, "Death of a President," is William Manchester who returned from Europe Tuesday. He said he was "not informed on what is happening" but was "puzzled by the disturbance."

William Attwood, editor-in-chief of Look, acknowledged receipt of the summons Tuesday but said the magazine was going ahead with its plan to serialize the book.

Mrs. Kennedy chose Manchester to record the events of the assassination "in the interest of accuracy" but later was reported disturbed by his use of some of her personal recollections in the book.

A source close to the Kennedy family said objections to the book centered on a section which implied that the Kennedys did not care for President Johnson. The source said it was feared this could create insurmountable tensions between the two political clans.

Harper & Row had scheduled publication of "Death of a President" for March, but announced last weekend the date had been advanced to April because of revisions by the author.

Serialization in Look is scheduled to begin in the Jan. 10 issue.

The card says: "Welcome to historic New Albany. You have just violated one of our traffic regulations. However, as a visitor to New Albany, won't you let us buy you a cup of coffee? Stop in at any of the following establishments:"

The card lists the names and addresses of several restaurants.

Hall points out that "while it isn't likely that an individual lodge would collect sufficient labels, it is possible that the goal can be achieved through an area - wide program such as that under way here."

THE PROGRAM was launched in January 1961 by the Department of Civic Affairs of the Loyal Order of Moose at the lodge's national headquarters in Moosehart, Ill.

The Moose scholarships are valued at $1,500, Hall said, "the actual cost to make a blind master and his guide dog a working team."

Hall said that the 5th District of the Maryland - Delaware - District of Columbia Moose Association already has provided one scholarship and now is working toward fulfillment of the second.

The labels may be deposited in the container on the Diamond or turned over to any member of the lodge, he said.

Mrs. Kennedy Makes Effort To Bar Book's Publication

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy has served a summons on Look magazine and the publishing firm of Harper & Row in an apparent effort to block publication of a book about her late husband's death.

Author of the book, "Death of a President," is William Manchester who returned from Europe Tuesday. He said he was "not informed on what is happening" but was "puzzled by the disturbance."

William Attwood, editor-in-chief of Look, acknowledged receipt of the summons Tuesday but said the magazine was going ahead with its plan to serialize the book.

Mrs. Kennedy chose Manchester to record the events of the assassination "in the interest of accuracy" but later was reported disturbed by his use of some of her personal recollections in the book.

A source close to the Kennedy family said objections to the book centered on a section which implied that the Kennedys did not care for President Johnson. The source said it was feared this could create insurmountable tensions between the two political clans.

Harper & Row had scheduled publication of "Death of a President" for March, but announced last weekend the date had been advanced to April because of revisions by the author.

Serialization in Look is scheduled to begin in the Jan. 10 issue.

The card lists the names and addresses of several restaurants.

swamp and rice paddy areas well outside the city proper.

The North Vietnamese charged that U. S. pilots bombed and strafed "many quarters inside and near Hanoi" and said the raids constituted "an extremely dangerous step of war escalation."

The organ of the North Vietnamese Communist party, Nhan Dan, called on its army and the Viet Cong to "avenge the people of Hanoi." After the last American raids near Hanoi early in December, the Viet Cong attacked Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airbase.

U. S. pilots sighted 9 or 10 Communist MIGs in the Hanoi area during the raids Tuesday, a spokesman reported, and tangled with two of the late-model MIG21s.

The spokesman said the MIGs fired air-to-air missiles and their cannon at a flight of four F105 Thunderchiefs about 40 miles northwest of Hanoi but that no hits were scored and the American planes did not return the fire.

U. S. headquarters reported one Air Force Thunderchief was shot down by enemy ground fire. Hanoi claimed four U. S. planes were downed.

A lull in the ground war in South Vietnam continued with no significant engagements reported.

U.S. headquarters reported a 155mm howitzer shell accidentally exploded during firing by a U.S. artillery unit five miles northwest of Tay Ninh City, killed two American soldiers and wounded two more. The shell exploded in the tube of the artillery piece, a spokesman said.

Earlier Tuesday a U.S. Marine F4B Phantom jet pilot dropped a bomb short of his target and hit a village 34 miles southeast of Hue. Five Vietnamese civilians were killed and three others were wounded.

Two more grenade attacks in the Saigon area were reported, raising to at least five the number of terrorist attacks in and around the capital this week. Two Vietnamese policemen and an American soldier were wounded; one suspect was caught.

In the U.S. raids in the Hanoi area four flights of Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs — between 12 and 16 planes — attacked the Yen Vien railroad yards six miles northeast of Hanoi, a target previously hit on Dec. 4.

The yards are the junction for North Vietnam's three major rail lines, two of them connecting with Communist China. Pilots reported heavy damage to the yards and two secondary explosions.

"I do not have any reports that would indicate that we hit other than the railroad yards," the official U.S. spokesman in Saigon said. "I have no report that anybody missed the target."

The truck depot five miles south of Hanoi was bombed by six flights of Navy fighter-bombers — between 18 and 24 planes — from the carrier Kitty Hawk. The planes flew through intense antiaircraft fire but the strike leader, Cmdr. Ron Hays of Virginia Beach, Va., reported "all bombs were on target."

The Navy said a visual bomb damage assessment was hampered by poor weather and the heavy antiaircraft fire. The truck depot had been hit previously Dec. 2, when some 500 vehicles were spotted there.

White House Party

Snow Delays 33 Guests, But It's Merry Party

WASHINGTON (AP)—What's a guy do when he is snowbound miles from Washington only hours before he is to be a guest at a White House dinner?

Panic, says bandleader Duke Ellington. Take a 200-mile taxi ride, says producer Stanley Young. Eat a tunafish sandwich, says director Mike Nichols.

It happened to all of them — and some 30 more — before Tuesday night's Christmas dinner President and Mrs. Johnson gave in honor of the National Council on the Arts.

It turned out to be a merry holiday party.

Leonard Bernstein was there sipping champagne. Lynda Bird Johnson waltzed with Hubert H. Humphrey. The President cornered actor Gregory Peck. To talk politics?

Peck has been suggested as the Democrat's answer to Republican Ronald Reagan, also an actor and newly elected governor of California. "A joke," Peck says of such suggestions.

President Johnson invited the musicians, artists, actors and producers to the White House to thank them for helping rid the country of "dime store culture."

"There is hardly a nation not enriched by our culture today," he said. He pledged government effort "to develop our artistic talents to the fullest, to distribute the fruits of that talent to all Americans, rich and poor."

About the time the President was speaking, the Stanley Youngs of New York drove up at the White House after a taxi ride from New York. They paid the $150 fare, rushed inside and ate on silver trays in the Red Room.

Like others, the Youngs discovered too late that heavy snowfall had grounded all planes to Washington.

Ellington took a train from Bluefield, W.Va. and after no sleep for 36 hours arrived in Washington without his dress tuxedo. He called the White House from the station at 7:30 and was told, "Come as you are." He did, in a blue shirt and black suit.

Director Nichols started out from Los Angeles, was detained in Pittsburgh, and finally arrived at 10 p.m., in time for the afterdinner entertainment of a play and chamber music, champagne and dancing.

At 1:30 a.m., when the dancing stopped half a dozen guests were still to arrive. "I think we lost some on the New Jersey Turnpike," quipped the First Lady's press secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter.

Inmates Due Commitment Assured Of Legal Recourse

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Prisoners facing possible commitment to mental hospitals have several avenues of legal recourse to assure that their rights are not violated, officials say.

"You can't just ramrod someone into a mental institution," said Franklin County Prosecutor C. Howard Johnson, whose office now is handling a first degree murder charge against a former mental patient whose mental state has been challenged.

A decision may be made at arraignment proceedings Friday on what route to take in the case against William R. Minor, 23-year-old itinerant charged with killing a prominent Chicago minister, Dr. Robert Spike, 45, last October.

The Franklin County Grand Jury said Monday when it indicted Minor that it felt he is insane, and it recommended that the Common Pleas Court order a sanity hearing for him.

The court could order Minor to Lima State Hospital for a 30-day observation period to determine sanity, or it could order the sanity hearing now. In addition, either side could ask for a sanity hearing after the hospital observation period.

If Minor's case comes to a sanity hearing, his rights under the law are explicit.

Robert D. Macklin, chief of the administrative agencies section of the attorney general's office pointed out that in the case of sanity hearings, law gives common pleas judges authority to impanel a jury, and that the defendant may demand a jury.

Macklin said other statutes call for the judge to appoint "reputable" psychiatrists to examine the defendant and give testimony at the hearing.

A three-fourths majority of a 12-member jury is needed to declare a person insane and if three-fourths of the group fails to agree, another jury may be impaneled. If the defendant is eventually declared sane, then the state may proceed against him as provided by law, Macklin said.

The law further states that when a prisoner is declared insane that he shall be committed to Lima State Hospital "until his reason is restored." It is up to the hospital to say when this is done. Defendants still face the original charge against them when they are released from the hospital.

Longsworth Reports $1,826 Vote Expense

A total of $1,826 was spent in the campaign in which John Longsworth, Salem Republican, was named state senator from the 30th District at the Nov. 8 general election, according to reports filed Tuesday with the County Election Board.

The Longsworth for Senator Committee spent $1,253, according to the report signed by R. J. Barrow, chairman and treasurer. Longsworth's personal report showed expenses of $573.92.

Meanwhile, County Commissioner James Boyd of St. Clair Ave. Ext., a Republican named to a new term, reported his expenses totaled $537.87.

The first artificial snowstorm fell on the United States 20 years ago when three scientists dropped dry ice into clouds over Mt. Greylock Mass.

Snow Delays 33 Guests, But It's Merry Party

WASHINGTON (AP)—What's a guy do when he is snowbound miles from Washington only hours before he is to be a guest at a White House dinner?

Panic, says bandleader Duke Ellington. Take a 200-mile taxi ride, says producer Stanley Young. Eat a tunafish sandwich, says director Mike Nichols.

It happened to all of them — and some 30 more — before Tuesday night's Christmas dinner President and Mrs. Johnson gave in honor of the National Council on the Arts.

It turned out to be a merry holiday party.

Leonard Bernstein was there sipping champagne. Lynda Bird Johnson waltzed with Hubert H. Humphrey. The President cornered actor Gregory Peck. To talk politics?

Peck has been suggested as the Democrat's answer to Republican Ronald Reagan, also an actor and newly elected governor of California. "A joke," Peck says of such suggestions.

President Johnson invited the musicians, artists, actors and producers to the White House to thank them for helping rid the country of "dime store culture."

"There is hardly a nation not enriched by our culture today," he said. He pledged government effort "to develop our artistic talents to the fullest, to distribute the fruits of that talent to all Americans, rich and poor."

About the time the President was speaking, the Stanley Youngs of New York drove up at the White House after a taxi ride from New York. They paid the $150 fare, rushed inside and ate on silver trays in the Red Room.

Like others, the Youngs discovered too late that heavy snowfall had grounded all planes to Washington.

Ellington took a train from Bluefield, W.Va. and after no sleep for 36 hours arrived in Washington without his dress tuxedo. He called the White House from the station at 7:30 and was told, "Come as you are." He did, in a blue shirt and black suit.

Director Nichols started out from Los Angeles, was detained in Pittsburgh, and finally arrived at 10 p.m., in time for the afterdinner entertainment of a play and chamber music, champagne and dancing.

At 1:30 a.m., when the dancing stopped half a dozen guests were still to arrive. "I think we lost some on the New Jersey Turnpike," quipped the First Lady's press secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter.

Inmates Due Commitment Assured Of Legal Recourse

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Prisoners facing possible commitment to mental hospitals have several avenues of legal recourse to assure that their rights are not violated, officials say.

"You can't just ramrod someone into a mental institution," said Franklin County Prosecutor C. Howard Johnson, whose office now is handling a first degree murder charge against a former mental patient whose mental state has been challenged.

A decision may be made at arraignment proceedings Friday on what route to take in the case against William R. Minor, 23-year-old itinerant charged with killing a prominent Chicago minister, Dr. Robert Spike, 45, last October.

The Franklin County Grand Jury said Monday when it indicted Minor that it felt he is insane, and it recommended that the Common Pleas Court order a sanity hearing for him.

The court could order Minor to Lima State Hospital for a 30-day observation period to determine sanity, or it could order the sanity hearing now. In addition, either side could ask for a sanity hearing after the hospital observation period.

If Minor's case comes to a sanity hearing, his rights under the law are explicit.

Robert D. Macklin, chief of the administrative agencies section of the attorney general's office pointed out that in the case of sanity hearings, law gives common pleas judges authority to impanel a jury, and that the defendant may demand a jury.

Macklin said other statutes call for the judge to appoint "reputable" psychiatrists to examine the defendant and give testimony at the hearing.

A three-fourths majority of a 12-member jury is needed to declare a person insane and if three-fourths of the group fails to agree, another jury may be impaneled. If the defendant is eventually declared sane, then the state may proceed against him as provided by law, Macklin said.

The law further states that when a prisoner is declared insane that he shall be committed to Lima State Hospital "until his reason is restored." It is up to the hospital to say when this is done. Defendants still face the original charge against them when they are released from the hospital.

Longsworth Reports $1,826 Vote Expense

A total of $1,826 was spent in the campaign in which John Longsworth, Salem Republican, was named state senator from the 30th District at the Nov. 8 general election, according to reports filed Tuesday with the County Election Board.

The Longsworth for Senator Committee spent $1,253, according to the report signed by R. J. Barrow, chairman and treasurer. Longsworth's personal report showed expenses of $573.92.

Meanwhile, County Commissioner James Boyd of St. Clair Ave. Ext., a Republican named to a new term, reported his expenses totaled $537.87.

The first artificial snowstorm fell on the United States 20 years ago when three scientists dropped dry ice into clouds over Mt. Greylock Mass.

Dr. William Gilmore, dressed as Santa Claus, conducted the gift exchange.

A "Playboy Club" atmosphere predominated for the party, with several of the hostesses serving as "bunnies." Places were marked with cannisters of candy topped with pink and black felt bunnies. Each lady received "bunny ear" head bands.

The head table was highlighted with large bunnies at either end. Decorations on all the tables consisted of hurricane lamps with red candles and pine sprays. Dr. Gilmore offered the blessing.

The next session for the Auxiliary will be a 6:30 o'clock dinner meeting Jan. 17 at the Lisbon VFW Hall. Harold J. Burbach of Kent State University will be the speaker.

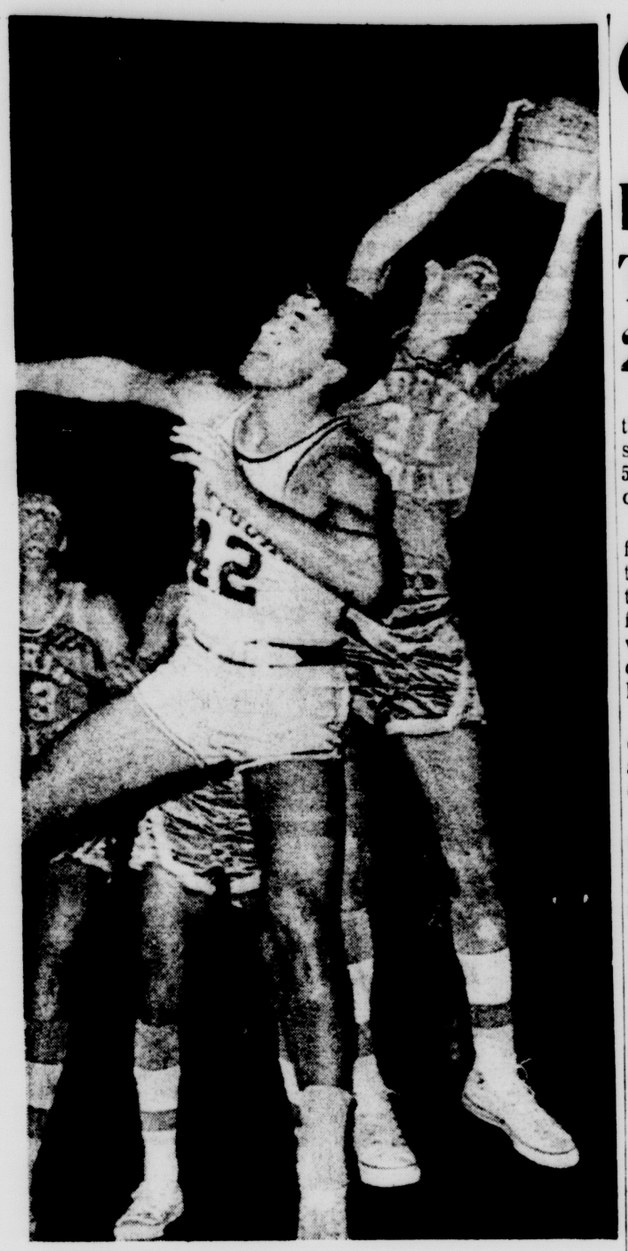
Oak Glen Drops 3rd To Weirton, 59-34



KENTUCKY'S Pat Riley (42) gets the worst of a rebound battle with North Carolina's Bill Bunting (31). The Tar Heels went on to upset Kentucky, 64-55, Tuesday night at Lexington. (UPI Telephoto)

Kentucky Upset By Tar Heels On Own Court 64-55

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

After 10 years this may be the season for the North Carolina Tar Heels to duplicate the feat of the 1957 Tar Heels who swept unbeaten through 32 games and won the national collegiate basketball championship.

How about UCLA and Lew Alcindor, the preseason favorite in The Associated Press Press poll? Well, in 1957 the University of Kansas and big Wilt Chamberlain were the UCLA - Alcindor combination of that season, so to speak. North Carolina beat them 54-53 in three overtimes in the final of the NCAA-championship tourney.

So far this season the Tar Heels are unbeaten and sixth-ranked to UCLA in this week's AP poll. They made it four in a row Tuesday night with an impressive 64-55 triumph over fourth-ranked Kentucky. The Tar Heels did it on the road, too.

"This game should answer the question of how good we are," said Dean Smith, the North Carolina coach, before the game at Lexington, Ky. He didn't need to say anytning afterward.

Back home at Durham, N.C., the Duke Blue Devils rebounded from their two trouncings at the hands of UCLA in Los Angeles last week to knock Vanderbilt from the unbeaten ranks 97-89.

Third - ranked Louisville chalked up an easy 107-55 home court victory over Tampa. Nebraska beat Washington State at Lincoln 80-78 on two free throws by Ron Simmons with 38 seconds left.

Tom Workman scored 15 of his 32 points in two overtimes to lead Seattle over Los Angeles State 106-101. In other home court triumphs, Kansas beat U. of Pacific 70-54, Oklahoma City downed Denver 103-98, Rutgers took Columbia 69-62 and Wisconsin overcame Iowa State 80-73.

Bears Fail To Tally In 2nd Period

Oak Glen's losing streak hit three Tuesday night when a strong Weirton quint posted a 59-34 decision at the Oak Glen court.

The Golden Bears put up a fight in the first period and only trailed 12-11 at the conclusion of the quarter. Oak Glen's downfall came in the second quarter when the Bears failed to score due to numerous turnovers and lack of rebounding.

With Oak Glen blanked for eight minutes, Weirton went into a 32-11 halftime lead then posted a 47-22 third quarter margin.

The Bears were cold again from the floor as Coach Bob Starkey watched his team shoot only 22 per cent making 14 of 63 attempts. Meanwhile Weirton found a warm hand hitting 45 per cent on 24 of 54 tries.

The victory was the second in a row for Weirton which was paced by Gilliam's 17 points. Ten Weirton cagers broke into the scoring column.

John Roach, 5-10 junior, paced Oak Glen with eight points while John Zielinsky added seven.

The Weirton reserves took the preliminary contest, 53-41. Jim Carnes and John Franczek had eight points each for the losers while R. Smith poured in 24 for Weirton.

NFL's Award Of Week Won By Alexander

NEW YORK (AP) — Kermit Alexander runs back punts and kickoffs and intercepts passes as part of his regular duties in the San Francisco 49ers' defensive backfield. Coaching is not one of his jobs.

But the former UCLA star did a bit of coaching Sunday that helped him become The Associated Press' choice as defensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Alvin Randolph, a rookie from Iowa, intercepted a pass by Rudy Bukich of the Chicago Bears in the second period of Sunday's game at Kezar Stadium. He fell down on the San Francisco six and, forgetting that pro and the college rules differ, he thought the ball was dead.

"Come on get up and run," yelled Alexander. "Let's go, get up, get up."

Randolph got up and ran 94 yards to score. Alexander blotted out one Chicago player with a devastating block and convoyed the rookie down the field. He made both the first and last blocks on the run.

"All I could see was shadows coming up" said Randolph. "Then those shadows were falling down all around me."

This bit of coaching and blocking was only the icing on the cake for Alexander's efforts in one five-minute period in the second quarter.

San Francisco led 10-7 when Alexander hit Jim Jones just as he caught a pass. Jones fumbled, Alexander grabbed the ball and ran 14 yards for a touchdown. That made it 17-7. Then came a 44-yard punt return by Alexander and it was 24-7. Randolph's touchdown upped it to 31-7 and turned the game into a rout with a final 41-14 score.

Giants, Nats In Trade

WASHINGTON (AP) — The San Francisco Giants traded pitcher Bob Priddy and outfielder Cap Peterson to the Washington Senators for pitcher Mike McCormick in an interleague deal Tuesday.

Super Bowl Tilt Is Definitely Set Jan. 15

NEW YORK (AP)—The Super Bowl is definitely set for Sunday, Jan. 15, at the Los Angeles Coliseum with Green Bay and Kansas City only one win away from the big money date.

The Packers, having clinched the Western Conference title of the National Football League, must beat Dallas or St. Louis, the two teams still having a chance at the Eastern Conference crown, in the NFL title game Jan. 1 in the Eastern winner's park.

Kansas City, the Western Division champs of the AFL, must defeat either Boston or Buffalo for the AFL championship Jan. 1 in the park of the Eastern winner.

Under a unique arrangement between the television network (CBS) which carries all NFL games and the network (NBC) which beams all AFL games, the Super Bowl will be shared by CBS and NBC. There will be a blackout in the Los Angeles area.

The television fee for the first Super Bowl will be $2 million. The rights will cost $2.5 million each year for the remaining years of the agreement running through 1970. CBS will have the game exclusively in 1968 and 1970 and NBC in 1969. After 1970 the two leagues will be merged into one unit. The total four-year contract calls for $9.5 million.

The postseason dates have been reshuffled to permit the two league champions two weeks of rest before the Super Bowl. The AFL title game at Boston or Buffalo, originally set for Dec. 26, will be played at 1 p.m. EST Sunday, Jan. 1. The NFL game, at Dallas or St. Louis, will be played the same day, starting at 4 p.m. EST.

While the two winners rest and then start to prepare for the big game, the two second-place teams in the NFL will play their Playoff Bowl game Sunday, Jan. 3, in the Orange Bowl at Miami as originally scheduled.

In the Jan. 15 Super Bowl, which may draw a $3-million gate with a sellout of 93,000, each player on the winning team gets $15,000 and each loser $7,500. Seventy per cent of the receipts, after expenses and rental, go to the players in shares or to their Player Benefit Plan pension fund in both leagues.

It is possible for a player to make as much as $8,000 in a league title game and an additional $15,000 in the Super Bowl for a total of $23,000.

The new contract was announced jointly Tuesday by Commissioner Pete Rozelle and Bill MacPhail, vice president CBS TV Sports, and Carl Lindemann Jr., vice president NBC Sports.

Rozelle said the two All-Star games had been rescheduled.

The AFL All-Star game, originally set for Jan. 14, will be played Saturday, Jan. 21, at Oakland. The NFL Pro Bowl, or All-Star game, will be played Sunday, Jan. 22, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Costello Seen Difference In Success Of 76er Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Philadelphia Coach Hannum made a 12-minute phone call about 11 o'clock one night last May. It could turn out to be more important than any quarter of basketball the 76ers play this season.

The call was to a 35-year-old high school basketball coach, and during the conversation Hannum asked him if he would consider returning to the National Basketball Association.

Larry Costello came back.

"The key between last year and this year is Larry," Hannum said Tuesday night.

"He plays the whole game, but it's mainly defense that he adds to our effort," Hannum said.

Just minutes earlier, Costello had finished turning in another good defensive game as the 76ers scored their 27th victory in 30 starts by beating the New York Knickerbockers 127-112 in the second game of a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden. Costello also contributed 13 points.

Baltimore beat Chicago 122-94 in the first game at the Garden and Cincinnati whipped San Francisco 126-112 in the only other action.

Instrumental in the Warriors' defeat was the defensive job done by Royals rookie Bob Love. Though Barry got 33 points, Love blocked a half-dozen of his shots and forced the leading NBA scorer to take bad shots all night.

The Royals held the Warriors to only four field goals in the first quarter, taking a lead of 25-14 at the end of the first 12 minutes.

The Warriors fought back 52-50 on a lay-up by Barry starting the third quarter. But Adrian Smith scored six points and Robertson four without a reply as the Royals pulled away for good.

Toledo Stays Unbeaten After Winning On Road

By The Associated Press

Toledo's basketball Rockets were slow getting off the launching pad Tuesday night but soared in the second half to stay unbeaten with an 85-76 decision over Marquette on the road.

Steve Mix, one of three sophomores starting for the Rockets, led the way with 26 points. Fellow soph Bob Miller had 12, with 10 of them timely scores in the second half, when the Ohio club overcame a 10-point deficit.

Toledo and Marshall, the only unbeaten Mid-American Conference teams, are likely to still be that way when they tangle Saturday night at Toledo in a conference opener.

But Marshall faces Morehead Wednesday night and Toledo goes against Akron Thursday night in games that also will be battles between unbeaten fives.

In other games on Tuesday night's 10-game Ohio schedule, Otterbein romped over Muskingum 84-61 and Kenyon nipped Wooster in overtime 78-77 in an Ohio Conference pair. Little All-America Don Carlos scored 36 points for Otterbein in his biggest night of the year so far.

Dick Fox's jump shot just before the end of the overtime period gave Kenyon its first basketball victory at Wooster since 1949.

Akron kept its scoring average for the season over 100 with its runaway win.

Jim Carder of Findlay outscored his twin Jerry 34-29 and needed 22 second half points to do it.

Steubenville rolled past its Texas foe with the aid of Walt Osborne's 26 points and Defiance's Dan Terhune had 25 in his team's easy win.

Oinn Oring's 35 points highlighted Wilmington's overtime victory over Mid-Ohio foe Malone.

Ashland went into a full-court press against Hillsdale after trailing 35-30 at the half, then won going away with the help of Jim Batista's 27-point night.

Oak Glen Drops 3rd To Weirton, 59-34

Kentucky Upset By Tar Heels On Own Court 64-55

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

After 10 years this may be the season for the North Carolina Tar Heels to duplicate the feat of the 1957 Tar Heels who swept unbeaten through 32 games and won the national collegiate basketball championship.

How about UCLA and Lew Alcindor, the preseason favorite in The Associated Press Press poll? Well, in 1957 the University of Kansas and big Wilt Chamberlain were the UCLA - Alcindor combination of that season, so to speak. North Carolina beat them 54-53 in three overtimes in the final of the NCAA-championship tourney.

So far this season the Tar Heels are unbeaten and sixth-ranked to UCLA in this week's AP poll. They made it four in a row Tuesday night with an impressive 64-55 triumph over fourth-ranked Kentucky. The Tar Heels did it on the road, too.

"This game should answer the question of how good we are," said Dean Smith, the North Carolina coach, before the game at Lexington, Ky. He didn't need to say anytning afterward.

Back home at Durham, N.C., the Duke Blue Devils rebounded from their two trouncings at the hands of UCLA in Los Angeles last week to knock Vanderbilt from the unbeaten ranks 97-89.

Third - ranked Louisville chalked up an easy 107-55 home court victory over Tampa. Nebraska beat Washington State at Lincoln 80-78 on two free throws by Ron Simmons with 38 seconds left.

Tom Workman scored 15 of his 32 points in two overtimes to lead Seattle over Los Angeles State 106-101. In other home court triumphs, Kansas beat U. of Pacific 70-54, Oklahoma City downed Denver 103-98, Rutgers took Columbia 69-62 and Wisconsin overcame Iowa State 80-73.

Toledo Stays Unbeaten After Winning On Road

By The Associated Press

Toledo's basketball Rockets were slow getting off the launching pad Tuesday night but soared in the second half to stay unbeaten with an 85-76 decision over Marquette on the road.

Bears Fail To Tally In 2nd Period

Oak Glen's losing streak hit three Tuesday night when a strong Weirton quint posted a 59-34 decision at the Oak Glen court.

The Golden Bears put up a fight in the first period and only trailed 12-11 at the conclusion of the quarter. Oak Glen's downfall came in the second quarter when the Bears failed to score due to numerous turnovers and lack of rebounding.

With Oak Glen blanked for eight minutes, Weirton went into a 32-11 halftime lead then posted a 47-22 third quarter margin.

The Bears were cold again from the floor as Coach Bob Starkey watched his team shoot only 22 per cent making 14 of 63 attempts. Meanwhile Weirton found a warm hand hitting 45 per cent on 24 of 54 tries.

The victory was the second in a row for Weirton which was paced by Gilliam's 17 points. Ten Weirton cagers broke into the scoring column.

John Roach, 5-10 junior, paced Oak Glen with eight points while John Zielinsky added seven.

The Weirton reserves took the preliminary contest, 53-41. Jim Carnes and John Franczek had eight points each for the losers while R. Smith poured in 24 for Weirton.

NFL's Award Of Week Won By Alexander

NEW YORK (AP) — Kermit Alexander runs back punts and kickoffs and intercepts passes as part of his regular duties in the San Francisco 49ers' defensive backfield. Coaching is not one of his jobs.

But the former UCLA star did a bit of coaching Sunday that helped him become The Associated Press' choice as defensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Alvin Randolph, a rookie from Iowa, intercepted a pass by Rudy Bukich of the Chicago Bears in the second period of Sunday's game at Kezar Stadium. He fell down on the San Francisco six and, forgetting that pro and the college rules differ, he thought the ball was dead.

"Come on get up and run," yelled Alexander. "Let's go, get up, get up."

Randolph got up and ran 94 yards to score. Alexander blotted out one Chicago player with a devastating block and convoyed the rookie down the field. He made both the first and last blocks on the run.

"All I could see was shadows coming up" said Randolph. "Then those shadows were falling down all around me."

This bit of coaching and blocking was only the icing on the cake for Alexander's efforts in one five-minute period in the second quarter.

San Francisco led 10-7 when Alexander hit Jim Jones just as he caught a pass. Jones fumbled, Alexander grabbed the ball and ran 14 yards for a touchdown. That made it 17-7. Then came a 44-yard punt return by Alexander and it was 24-7. Randolph's touchdown upped it to 31-7 and turned the game into a rout with a final 41-14 score.

Giants, Nats In Trade

WASHINGTON (AP) — The San Francisco Giants traded pitcher Bob Priddy and outfielder Cap Peterson to the Washington Senators for pitcher Mike McCormick in an interleague deal Tuesday.

Super Bowl Tilt Is Definitely Set Jan. 15

NEW YORK (AP)—The Super Bowl is definitely set for Sunday, Jan. 15, at the Los Angeles Coliseum with Green Bay and Kansas City only one win away from the big money date.

The Packers, having clinched the Western Conference title of the National Football League, must beat Dallas or St. Louis, the two teams still having a chance at the Eastern Conference crown, in the NFL title game Jan. 1 in the Eastern winner's park.

Kansas City, the Western Division champs of the AFL, must defeat either Boston or Buffalo for the AFL championship Jan. 1 in the park of the Eastern winner.

Under a unique arrangement between the television network (CBS) which carries all NFL games and the network (NBC) which beams all AFL games, the Super Bowl will be shared by CBS and NBC. There will be a blackout in the Los Angeles area.

The television fee for the first Super Bowl will be $2 million. The rights will cost $2.5 million each year for the remaining years of the agreement running through 1970. CBS will have the game exclusively in 1968 and 1970 and NBC in 1969. After 1970 the two leagues will be merged into one unit. The total four-year contract calls for $9.5 million.

The postseason dates have been reshuffled to permit the two league champions two weeks of rest before the Super Bowl. The AFL title game at Boston or Buffalo, originally set for Dec. 26, will be played at 1 p.m. EST Sunday, Jan. 1. The NFL game, at Dallas or St. Louis, will be played the same day, starting at 4 p.m. EST.

While the two winners rest and then start to prepare for the big game, the two second-place teams in the NFL will play their Playoff Bowl game Sunday, Jan. 3, in the Orange Bowl at Miami as originally scheduled.

In the Jan. 15 Super Bowl, which may draw a $3-million gate with a sellout of 93,000, each player on the winning team gets $15,000 and each loser $7,500. Seventy per cent of the receipts, after expenses and rental, go to the players in shares or to their Player Benefit Plan pension fund in both leagues.

It is possible for a player to make as much as $8,000 in a league title game and an additional $15,000 in the Super Bowl for a total of $23,000.

The new contract was announced jointly Tuesday by Commissioner Pete Rozelle and Bill MacPhail, vice president CBS TV Sports, and Carl Lindemann Jr., vice president NBC Sports.

Rozelle said the two All-Star games had been rescheduled.

The AFL All-Star game, originally set for Jan. 14, will be played Saturday, Jan. 21, at Oakland. The NFL Pro Bowl, or All-Star game, will be played Sunday, Jan. 22, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Costello Seen Difference In Success Of 76er Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Philadelphia Coach Hannum made a 12-minute phone call about 11 o'clock one night last May. It could turn out to be more important than any quarter of basketball the 76ers play this season.

The call was to a 35-year-old high school basketball coach, and during the conversation Hannum asked him if he would consider returning to the National Basketball Association.

Larry Costello came back.

"The key between last year and this year is Larry," Hannum said Tuesday night.

"He plays the whole game, but it's mainly defense that he adds to our effort," Hannum said.

Just minutes earlier, Costello had finished turning in another good defensive game as the 76ers scored their 27th victory in 30 starts by beating the New York Knickerbockers 127-112 in the second game of a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden. Costello also contributed 13 points.

Baltimore beat Chicago 122-94 in the first game at the Garden and Cincinnati whipped San Francisco 126-112 in the only other action.

Instrumental in the Warriors' defeat was the defensive job done by Royals rookie Bob Love. Though Barry got 33 points, Love blocked a half-dozen of his shots and forced the leading NBA scorer to take bad shots all night.

The Royals held the Warriors to only four field goals in the first quarter, taking a lead of 25-14 at the end of the first 12 minutes.

The Warriors fought back 52-50 on a lay-up by Barry starting the third quarter. But Adrian Smith scored six points and Robertson four without a reply as the Royals pulled away for good.

Packers Land 8 On 1st Unit

Green Bay, Dallas Head All-NFL Team For 1966

NEW YORK (AP) — Green Bay and Dallas dominated the National Football League All-Star team selected for The Associated Press today by a committee of sports writers and sportscasters.

Vince Lombardi's Packers, who have clinched the Western Conference title, placed eight men on the first team—three on offense and five on defense.

The Dallas Cowboys, who can nail down the Eastern Conference title this weekend, placed four on the first club—one on offense and three on defense.

The All-Star squad positions were divided among 11 teams. The Los Angeles Rams had two and no other club more than one. Washington, Pittsburgh, New York and Atlanta did not put a player on the first team.

Bart Starr, the Packers' quarterback who has had his best year, was joined by tackle Forrest Gregg and guard Jerry Kramer on the offensive team.

The Packers' five-man defensive contingent included end Willie Davis, linebackers Ray Nitschke and Lee Roy Caffey, cornerback Herb Adderley and safety Willie Wood.

Bob Hayes, the fleet split end, was Dallas' only starter on offense. The Cowboys placed tackle Bob Lilly, linebacker Chuck Howley and cornerback Cornell Green on the defensive club.

Los Angeles had two members of its defensive unit on the first team—end Dave Jones and tackle Merlin Olsen.

Joining Starr in the first string backfield were running backs Gale Sayers of the Chicago Bears and Leroy Kelly of the Cleveland Browns and flanker Pat Studstill of the Detroit Lions.

John Mackey, Baltimore tight end, was a winner along with Bob Brown of Philadelphia and Gregg at tackle. John Thomas of San Francisco and Kramer were choices for starting guards with Mike Tingelhoif of Minnesota at center.

The St. Louis Cardinals placed one man on the All-Star squad—Larry Wilson, safety on the defensive unit.

Gary Collins of Cleveland was named flanker on the second team offense and Ross Fichtner, also of the Browns, was picked for a safety spot on the second team defense.

Collier Eyes New Lineup For St. Louis

CLEVELAND (AP) — Coach Blanton Collier has hinted that there may be some lineup changes when the Cleveland Browns meet the St. Louis Cardinals Saturday.

"We haven't made any decisions yet," said Collier. "One thing you can be sure of, any changes made would be for the purpose of winning the ball game."

One man certain to remain in the starting lineup is Leroy Kelly, the halfback who leads rushing in the National Football League with 1,122 yards.

Kelly will be tested by the Cards' often tough defense. But St. Louis does a lot of blitzing and sometimes becomes vulnerable to the long gainer.

The Cards defeated the Browns in their last four appearances in Cleveland, but they haven't done so well at home. They won in 1964 and played Cleveland to a tie in 1960.

Last year, the Browns took the decision in a wild game there after they had already clinched the Eastern Division title.

This time, only the possibility of second place is at stake for Cleveland. St. Louis, a game behind the first-place Dallas Cowboys, has a very long-shot chance at the Eastern title.

To bring about a playoff for division honors, St. Louis would have to win Saturday and the Cowboys would have to lose in New York.

Southern Local's high scorers were Jim Randolph, seventh - grader, with 14 and Kim Needham, eighth-grader, with 17.

Packers Land 8 On 1st Unit

Green Bay, Dallas Head All-NFL Team For 1966

NEW YORK (AP) — Green Bay and Dallas dominated the National Football League All-Star team selected for The Associated Press today by a committee of sports writers and sportscasters.

Vince Lombardi's Packers, who have clinched the Western Conference title, placed eight men on the first team—three on offense and five on defense.

The Dallas Cowboys, who can nail down the Eastern Conference title this weekend, placed four on the first club—one on offense and three on defense.

The All-Star squad positions were divided among 11 teams. The Los Angeles Rams had two and no other club more than one. Washington, Pittsburgh, New York and Atlanta did not put a player on the first team.

Bart Starr, the Packers' quarterback who has had his best year, was joined by tackle Forrest Gregg and guard Jerry Kramer on the offensive team.

The Packers' five-man defensive contingent included end Willie Davis, linebackers Ray Nitschke and Lee Roy Caffey, cornerback Herb Adderley and safety Willie Wood.

Bob Hayes, the fleet split end, was Dallas' only starter on offense. The Cowboys placed tackle Bob Lilly, linebacker Chuck Howley and cornerback Cornell Green on the defensive club.

Los Angeles had two members of its defensive unit on the first team—end Dave Jones and tackle Merlin Olsen.

Joining Starr in the first string backfield were running backs Gale Sayers of the Chicago Bears and Leroy Kelly of the Cleveland Browns and flanker Pat Studstill of the Detroit Lions.

John Mackey, Baltimore tight end, was a winner along with Bob Brown of Philadelphia and Gregg at tackle. John Thomas of San Francisco and Kramer were choices for starting guards with Mike Tingelhoif of Minnesota at center.

The St. Louis Cardinals placed one man on the All-Star squad—Larry Wilson, safety on the defensive unit.

Gary Collins of Cleveland was named flanker on the second team offense and Ross Fichtner, also of the Browns, was picked for a safety spot on the second team defense.

Collier Eyes New Lineup For St. Louis

CLEVELAND (AP) — Coach Blanton Collier has hinted that there may be some lineup changes when the Cleveland Browns meet the St. Louis Cardinals Saturday.

"We haven't made any decisions yet," said Collier. "One thing you can be sure of, any changes made would be for the purpose of winning the ball game."

One man certain to remain in the starting lineup is Leroy Kelly, the halfback who leads rushing in the National Football League with 1,122 yards.

Kelly will be tested by the Cards' often tough defense. But St. Louis does a lot of blitzing and sometimes becomes vulnerable to the long gainer.

The Cards defeated the Browns in their last four appearances in Cleveland, but they haven't done so well at home. They won in 1964 and played Cleveland to a tie in 1960.

Last year, the Browns took the decision in a wild game there after they had already clinched the Eastern Division title.

This time, only the possibility of second place is at stake for Cleveland. St. Louis, a game behind the first-place Dallas Cowboys, has a very long-shot chance at the Eastern title.

To bring about a playoff for division honors, St. Louis would have to win Saturday and the Cowboys would have to lose in New York.

Both Beaver Public Teams Gain Victories

Both Beaver Public teams won victories in games with Fairfield - Waterford Tuesday on the Beaver floor.

The seventh grade team won 18-3 with Dean Horger scoring 11 points. Rick Shepherd tallied 19 points to pace the eighth grade in a 27-19 victory.

Oysters were exported from the Thames estuary to Rome as early as A.D. 80.

Southern Local Fives Capture Two Games

The seventh- and eighth-grade basketball teams of Southern Local Junior High School won two games from the United Local teams Tuesday night at Southern Local.

Coach Ed Henry's seventh-graders defeated United, 25-15, while the eighth - graders won, 33-24.

Southern Local's high scorers were Jim Randolph, seventh - grader, with 14 and Kim Needham, eighth-grader, with 17.

Miler Ryun Selected Top Sportsman

NEW YORK (AP) — Young Jim Ryun may be the world's fastest miler but to the Ryuns of Wichita, Kan., he would make Rip Van Winkle look like an astrojet.

"I never saw a slower child in all my life," said Mrs. Gerald Ryun, petite, brunette mother of the University of Kansas athlete. "I always had trouble getting him moving."

"Yeah, you'd think he could go to sleep standing up he's so relaxed," added the father, a tool worker for a Wichita airplane factory.

"Everything he does is slow and easy—except on the track," said Jim's brother, Jerry, 24, with "amens" from Jerry's pretty wife and Jim's kid sister, Jeanette, 14.

The Ryuns from Wichita were in town today to see their most famous family member honored as the Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

Doctor Goes To Iceland —But Not To The Dogs

Dr. Clarence Mayberry narrated a color slide program on Iceland, "90,000 People and No Dogs," during the luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club Tuesday at the Travelers Hotel.

The title, he explained, was derived from the fact that the capital city, Reykjavik, is entirely devoid of dogs.

In abundance in the little-visited volcanic land, however, are wild ponies and farm animals, including beef cattle, horses and sheep, he pointed out.

Dr. Mayberry and his wife visited Iceland the summer before last for several days while en route to Norway.

Contrasting views of modern museums and buildings at the University of Iceland and the ancient sod-covered houses were shown. Dr. Mayberry reported that he was impressed with the cleanliness of the land and the fact that there are no slums in the cities.

Fishing and farming, he said, are the principal industries of Iceland, which is about the size of the state of Kentucky.

The climate, he continued, is moderated by th eGulf Stream, resulting in the growth of abundant flowers during the summer. Dr. Mayberry showed views of mountain streams created from melting glaciers and aerial shots of the mountains and volcanoes.

The Icelanders, he disclosed, are avid readers and 20 times more books are published proportionally than in the United States.

Dr. Mayberry was assisted by John Pinney in screening the slides.

Death Ruled Accident In Fatal Blaze

BEAVER — Accidental death was ruled in a trailer fire which claimed the life of an 18-month-old West Bridgewater boy Monday afternoon.

Dr. John Colavincenzo, Beaver County coroner, said Matthew Allen Mahovlic, son of Mrs. Karen Mahovlic, died of smoke inhalation in the blaze, which apparently was ignited by an oil heating stove.

The mother was at a nearby laundry when the blaze broke out in the trailer and a neighbor — Bernie Reed — broke into the flaming trailer and saved two other sons, an investigation showed.

Dr. Colavincenzo said the child was overcome by smoke and suffocated before the flames reached him.

There was some confusion over the start of the blaze when the investigation was launched, but apparently the flames were ignited from the oil heating stove, he added.

8-Inch Snow Hits Eastern Areas Of U.S.

By The Associated Press

A fast-moving winter storm swirled into New England today after dumping up to eight inches of snow on the big metropolitan centers of the mid-Atlantic states.

Heavy, wet snow snarled traffic from Virginia to New Jersey and closed many schools in the Washington, D.C., area. The capital recorded five inches of snow while its Virginia suburbs were blanketed by eight inches. One traffic death was blamed on the storm.

As the storm intensified over the Atlantic and headed northward, heavy snow warnings were posted for extreme eastern Pennsylvania, northwest New Jersey, southeastern New York and most of southern and central New England.

Forecasters said snow accumulations of six inches or more would be whipped into drifts by winds gusting to 40 miles per hour today in those areas.

On the opposite coast, heavy rain sent some streams in Oregon over their banks, flooding many roads. More rain, with snow in the high mountains, was expected to continue from the north and central Pacific Coast inland to the northern Rockies.

Mostly sunny and dry weather was forecast today for the rest of the nation, with warmer temperatures from the Gulf states through the Mississippi and Ohio valleys.

Most School Levies Again Are Defeated

By The Associated Press

Several school levy proposals defeated Nov. 8 went before Ohio voters again Tuesday. In most cases, the five-week rest didn't help the levies.

Youngstown, Struthers, Chillicothe, Cuyahoga Falls, Kenton and Norwalk voters were among those saying no again in special school elections.

Oak Hills, in suburban Cincinnati, and Massillon schools were in the day's minority, with voters changing their minds to say yes on revotes.

Youngstown's proposal was a 5-mill, four-year levy. It was rejected 18,551 to 7,646. Struthers voters went 2,701 to 1,958 against a 7-mill levy.

Chillicothe voters cast 3,610 no votes and 2,618 yes votes on a 3.5-mill proposal, and Cuyahoga Falls' 4-mill levy for teachers salaries was beaten despite approval by 52.3 per cent of the voters. It needed 55 per cent approval by 52.3 per cent of the voters. It needed 55 per cent approval to win.

Oak Hills' 14-mill levy also needed a 55 per cent approval. It received 55.09 per cent.

Other levies winning approval included one on Mahoning County's Poland School District.

Other defeats came in Butler County's Ross and Fairfield districts, Clermont County's West Clermont and Bethel-Tate districts and the Stark County districts of Tuslaw, Fairless and Plain Local.

Probe Requested Of Teachers Pay

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)--An Ohio Education Association official asked Tuesday for a state investigation to determine if a Mahoning County school district is paying some teachers below its own scale.

E. L. Hoon, field services director for the association, said he believes some teachers in the Struthers city schools "are receiving several hundred dollars less than their training and experience . . . would indicate they would receive.

Hoon's request for an investigation was in a letter handed to State School Supt. Martin Essex Tuesday night. Essex said he would study the request today.

The letter cited a state law stipulating that teachers' salaries must at least match pay scales adopted by local school boards and filed with the State Department of Education.

Unfair Labor Charge Filed Against Firm

CINCINNATI (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board said today District Six of the United Mine Workers has filed unfair labor charges against the Collins Mining Co. of Hanging Rock, Ohio.

The NLRB said the union has charged the company discharged Robert Johnson and Curtis Leffingwell for their union activities and engaged in other activities which, the union said, constituted interference with employes in connection with the union.

The NLRB said the charges have been assigned to an investigator but there has been no issuance of an unfair labor practices complaint.

'Dead' Woman Found Alive

Bizarre Plot To Defraud 2 Insurance Firms Bared

NEW YORK (AP) — A 27-year-old woman research analyst, reported dead five months ago, has been found alive in what authorities describe as a bizarre plot by her and two male companions to defraud two insurance companies by staging her accidental drowning.

Dr. and Mrs. Werner A. Lindenmaier of Upper Montclair, N.J., had not known that their daughter, Miriam, was alive until they were reunited with her Tuesday in the Bronx County courthouse.

Miss Lindenmaier, who was employed as a $5,500-a-year media and rate analyst for a Manhattan firm for more than six years before she disappeared, was found working as a waitress for 87 cents an hour and tips in a restaurant in White Plains, N.Y.

She was arrested Tuesday in her hotel room where she was registered under the name of Elizabeth Pangborn, authorities said.

One of the accused men, Alvin Brodie, 34, a construction worker named by authorities as the father of Miss Lindenmaier's unborn child, was alleged to have promised her that they could go to Spain with the $36,000 in insurance money.

Burton B. Roberts, chief assistant Bronx district attorney, said official wiretapping, authorized by the Bronx Supreme Court last September, played a key role in solving the case. He said that police listening in on a telephone conversation heard Miss Lindenmaier's voice for the first time Thanksgiving Day.

Following this up, they traced her to White Plains, about 19 miles north of Times Square, then put her under surveillance before making the arrest. She signed a waiver of immunity and testified before a grand jury Tuesday.

Roberts declined to answer many questions by reporters on grounds they involved evidence. He did not indicate how the wiretap was used.

Roberts said Miss Lindenmaier, a 5-foot, 6-inch blonde who wears thick-lensed eyeglasses, is six months pregnant. Authorities said Brodie resides with his wife and four children.

Miss Lindenmaier, described by associates as a quiet, bright person who rarely used makeup, Brodie, and a second man, Thomas Martin, 26, a New York elevator operator, were arraigned Tuesday night in Bronx Criminal Court.

They were charged with attempted grand larceny and conspiracy by "staging the accidental death" of Miss Lindenmaier last July 9 in Long Island Sound.

Miss Lindenmaier was paroled in custody of her parents. The two men were ordered held in $7,500 bail each.

A preliminary hearing for all three was scheduled for Dec. 20.

Roberts said that last July 9, the trio rented a dory with an outboard motor. About two hours later, Roberts continued, the two men told police that the boat had capsized off Hart Island in Long Island Sound. They told police that Miss Lindenmaier had drowned and her body had not surfaced.

Roberts said two insurance policies, with Brodie as beneficiary, aroused his suspicion. In addition, the girl was reported to be an excellent swimmer.

The policies, one for $10,000 with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. and the other for $8,000 with the Equitable Life Assurance Society, provided for double indemnity, or a total of $36,000 in case of accidental death.

Roberts said that Brodie had made claims for the insurance proceeds to both companies but neither had paid off.

John Corcoran, Robert Finley and Ernest John were elected to three-year terms as members of the board of directors during a meeting of Chester American Legion Post 121 Monday night at the post.

Serving as tellers were John Fred Morris, Harold Ossman and Byron Allison.

In other business, Cy Smith, second vice - commander and chairman of the social committee, reported that the smorgasbord Saturday was a success.

A social period will be observed at the post from 1 to 5 p. m. Dec. 24, with the post to be closed Christmas Day, Smith said.

A New Year's Eve party will be held, with "open house" for members and guests on New Year's Day, during which traditional sauerkraut and pork will be served.

M. J. Sweeney, service office reported on his visit to the VA Hospital in Oakland.

John announced that Christmas baskets will be distributed Monday in cooperation with Post 163 of Lawrenceville, Post 114 of Newell, VFW Post 6450 of Chester and the Lions and Kiwanis Clubs of Chester.

Sayre Graham reported that the annual children's Christmas party also will be held Monday at Chester City Hall. Post 6450 is the joint sponsor.

The post approved the purchase of a camera for the use of the monthly newspaper published by Charles Morris.

John Corcoran was named "Legionnaire of the Month" and Dwight Allison was presented his award for October.

Comdr. Harry Huff announced the next meeting will be Jan. 9.

Fine Is Assessed As Result Of Raid

Joseph P. Hirkala of Weirton, license applicant of the Alpine Club on West Virginia Route 2 north of Weirton, was fined a total of $100 and costs on liquor violation charges by Squire Thomas Bellanco of Weirton after pleading "no contest."

The establishment, along with the Hilltop Inn, located at the western end of the "Strip" on Route 30, was raided Friday night by state police.

Hirkala's hearing, originally set for Tuesday, was advanced until Monday afternoon at his request.

Charles L. Pittenger, 49, of Chester, licensee of the Hilltop, earlier was fined $200 and costs by Bellanco on charges of possessing gaming devices and for the possession and sale of liquor.

The raiding party seized gambling equipment and a quantity of liquor.

Board Lists 4 Passing Test For Officers

The Municipal Civil Service Commission today listed the names of four applicants who scored passing grades Monday night in an examination to make up a new eligiblity list for appointment of police department patrolmen.

Listed in the order in which they finished, they are:

Charles Basil Coen, 26, of 1754 Clark Ave., Wellsville; Homer Clyde Dillon, 23, of 6th Ave., LaCroft; David Leigh Huffman, 24, of Boring Ln., and James Wesley Woods, 29, of 1228 Ceramic St.

Six had been cleared for the exam, but only four actually showed up to compete in the test at City Hall.

For the first time in history, the test was open to residents of Columbiana County outside East Liverpool, provided they were qualified otherwise. County residents named to the force will be required to move to a point not more than two miles from the city limits within two years after appointment.

The commission also announced new data on a promotional test which it will hold Tuesday, Dec. 27, at 7 p. m. in the Council chamber at City Hall to name a police department captain to fill the vacancy created by the death of Robert H. Pyle.

Applications must be filed by Dec. 21 at 4:30 p. m. with Howard A. Tullis of 2028 Michigan Ave., chairman of the commission, the notice specifies. It also provides that only two of the department's three lieutenants are eligible to compete — Charles E. (Bill) Tice and Kenneth H. Mooney. Robert B. Pyle also is a lieutenant, but has not served long enough in that grade to be eligible.

The eligibility list made up following the test will remain in effect two years, the commission said.

New Lisbon Light Stirs Violations

LISBON — Motorists accustomed to driving on N. Market St. without thinking about stoplights apparently are not observing the new signal at the Jerome St. junction, police say.

Theodore Reynolds, 25, of Lisbon R. D. 2 and Hazel K. Elner, 51, of West Point, cited at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday for traffic light violations, forfeited $15 bonds in mayor's court.

Two hours later, police charged Robert E. Devan, 37, of Lisbon R. D. 1, for running the light. They said he told them he didn't know the light was there and didn't see it. His hearing will be Dec. 27.

Police said the new lights—there are two facing each of the three approaches — are visible for quite a distance. "Signal ahead" signs are to be installed.

James Hickson, 44, Wilkinsburg truck driver arrested here at 7:05 a.m. today for improper passing on W. Lincoln Way, was detained until his employer furnished a $15 appearance bond.

Palestine's Chamber Picks New Directors

EAST PALESTINE — James Grappo and Don Archibald were elected new directors of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday.

Grappo is superintendent at the M. & W. Manufacturing Co. and Archibald operates an insurance agency. James Allison was re-elected a director.

The new directors will be seated and officers named in January.

Alan Hill, chairman of the special events committee, announced new Christmas street light decorations totaling $1,033 have been paid for by contributions.

Wage Problem Threatening To Close TB Hospital Solved

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A pay problem which threatened to force closing of the state's major tuberculosis hospital was solved today by shifting operation of the hospital to Ohio State University.

The agreement means the TB nurses now will be eligible for the same pay as nurses at University Hospital, across the street from the TB facility but until today nearly $100 away in monthly salary.

Dr. Emmett W. Arnold, state health director, said an agreement was made with Ohio State College of Medicine to provide all patient care and services at the TB hospital operated under the health department.

This means Ohio State will provide doctors, nurses and other employes. Present employes of the Health Department at the hospital will be eligible to join the university staff.

In effect, the agreement means the present staff will continue, but at the higher pay scales provided by the university.

Health Department nurses come under state Personnel Department classifications. University nurses don't.

Three fourths of the TB hospitals's staff of registered and practical nurses had submitted resignations, most of them effective Dec. 30, because of low pay.

The nurses started at $460 a month and earned only $500 after two years, while nurses at University Hospital started at $508.

Lisbon's Rotary Club Hears Talk On Plant

LISBON — James Mook, superintendent of construction at Ohio Edison's W. H. Sammis plant at Stratton, was guest speaker during the Rotary Club's dinner meeting Tuesday in the Wick Hotel.

He described the process used to build the tallest chimney in the world at the plant and showed slides of the different stages of construction. Charles Webber was program chairman.

Comdr. Harry Huff announced the next meeting will be Jan. 9.

Fine Is Assessed As Result Of Raid

Joseph P. Hirkala of Weirton, license applicant of the Alpine Club on West Virginia Route 2 north of Weirton, was fined a total of $100 and costs on liquor violation charges by Squire Thomas Bellanco of Weirton after pleading "no contest."

The establishment, along with the Hilltop Inn, located at the western end of the "Strip" on Route 30, was raided Friday night by state police.

Hirkala's hearing, originally set for Tuesday, was advanced until Monday afternoon at his request.

Charles L. Pittenger, 49, of Chester, licensee of the Hilltop, earlier was fined $200 and costs by Bellanco on charges of possessing gaming devices and for the possession and sale of liquor.

The raiding party seized gambling equipment and a quantity of liquor.

Board Lists 4 Passing Test For Officers

The Municipal Civil Service Commission today listed the names of four applicants who scored passing grades Monday night in an examination to make up a new eligiblity list for appointment of police department patrolmen.

Listed in the order in which they finished, they are:

Charles Basil Coen, 26, of 1754 Clark Ave., Wellsville; Homer Clyde Dillon, 23, of 6th Ave., LaCroft; David Leigh Huffman, 24, of Boring Ln., and James Wesley Woods, 29, of 1228 Ceramic St.

Six had been cleared for the exam, but only four actually showed up to compete in the test at City Hall.

For the first time in history, the test was open to residents of Columbiana County outside East Liverpool, provided they were qualified otherwise. County residents named to the force will be required to move to a point not more than two miles from the city limits within two years after appointment.

The commission also announced new data on a promotional test which it will hold Tuesday, Dec. 27, at 7 p. m. in the Council chamber at City Hall to name a police department captain to fill the vacancy created by the death of Robert H. Pyle.

Applications must be filed by Dec. 21 at 4:30 p. m. with Howard A. Tullis of 2028 Michigan Ave., chairman of the commission, the notice specifies. It also provides that only two of the department's three lieutenants are eligible to compete — Charles E. (Bill) Tice and Kenneth H. Mooney. Robert B. Pyle also is a lieutenant, but has not served long enough in that grade to be eligible.

The eligibility list made up following the test will remain in effect two years, the commission said.

New Lisbon Light Stirs Violations

LISBON — Motorists accustomed to driving on N. Market St. without thinking about stoplights apparently are not observing the new signal at the Jerome St. junction, police say.

Theodore Reynolds, 25, of Lisbon R. D. 2 and Hazel K. Elner, 51, of West Point, cited at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday for traffic light violations, forfeited $15 bonds in mayor's court.

Two hours later, police charged Robert E. Devan, 37, of Lisbon R. D. 1, for running the light. They said he told them he didn't know the light was there and didn't see it. His hearing will be Dec. 27.

Police said the new lights—there are two facing each of the three approaches — are visible for quite a distance. "Signal ahead" signs are to be installed.

James Hickson, 44, Wilkinsburg truck driver arrested here at 7:05 a.m. today for improper passing on W. Lincoln Way, was detained until his employer furnished a $15 appearance bond.

Palestine's Chamber Picks New Directors

EAST PALESTINE — James Grappo and Don Archibald were elected new directors of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday.

Grappo is superintendent at the M. & W. Manufacturing Co. and Archibald operates an insurance agency. James Allison was re-elected a director.

The new directors will be seated and officers named in January.

Alan Hill, chairman of the special events committee, announced new Christmas street light decorations totaling $1,033 have been paid for by contributions.

Wage Problem Threatening To Close TB Hospital Solved

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A pay problem which threatened to force closing of the state's major tuberculosis hospital was solved today by shifting operation of the hospital to Ohio State University.

The agreement means the TB nurses now will be eligible for the same pay as nurses at University Hospital, across the street from the TB facility but until today nearly $100 away in monthly salary.

Dr. Emmett W. Arnold, state health director, said an agreement was made with Ohio State College of Medicine to provide all patient care and services at the TB hospital operated under the health department.

This means Ohio State will provide doctors, nurses and other employes. Present employes of the Health Department at the hospital will be eligible to join the university staff.

In effect, the agreement means the present staff will continue, but at the higher pay scales provided by the university.

Health Department nurses come under state Personnel Department classifications. University nurses don't.

Three fourths of the TB hospitals's staff of registered and practical nurses had submitted resignations, most of them effective Dec. 30, because of low pay.

The nurses started at $460 a month and earned only $500 after two years, while nurses at University Hospital started at $508.

Lisbon's Rotary Club Hears Talk On Plant

LISBON — James Mook, superintendent of construction at Ohio Edison's W. H. Sammis plant at Stratton, was guest speaker during the Rotary Club's dinner meeting Tuesday in the Wick Hotel.

He described the process used to build the tallest chimney in the world at the plant and showed slides of the different stages of construction. Charles Webber was program chairman.

Cuba is the world's largest sugar cane producer.

Calls For Education Spending

Cleveland's School Head Cites Big Cities' Crisis

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"The crisis is here" in America's big cities, Cleveland School Supt. Paul Briggs warned Tuesday night in calling for education spending to help create "a new breed of cities."

Problems brought on poverty in cities, he said, may not be solved in this decade. "But I'm sure that if America doesn't solve these problems, we're in for trouble like we've never seen."

Cleveland saw major trouble this summer, when several days of rioting erupted in the city's Hough area, a Negro slum. Scenes of the Hough riots were included in a film Briggs showed in his appearance before a 14-state Education Symposium on Urban Problems.

Briggs said his city's voters took a big step toward solving school problems by approving a $66 million bond issue for schools Nov. 8. Now it is time for the state to grant big city school districts a greater share of state school foundation funds, he said.

He added: "Traditionally, we Americans only go after problems when we have a crisis. The crisis is here."

Children now living in poverty must be helped "or you're going to hear their voices so loud you'll hear them no matter where you live," Briggs said in discussing Cleveland's continuing exodus of middle-class families to the suburbs.

Dr. Martin Essex, state superintendent of public instruction, opened the two-day conference with a speech calling for state education departments to work closely with teachers' groups.

With the closing of schools affecting 100,000 pupils in suburban Detroit and the teachers' strikes in the Youngstown area, Essex said "it becomes clear that there is urgency for improved understanding and procedures."

Gap Between Whites, Non-Whites Widening

WASHINGTON (AP) — The gap between whites and non-whites is mostly widening even as 10 major U.S. cities move toward Negro citizen majorities, Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League, told senators today.

Despite "all the frenzied activity" in the field of urban problems, said Young, "the gap between non-white citizens in the United States and white citizens has not been closed. In most instances it is not even narrowing — it is widening."

He said, for example since 1954 Negro unemployment has doubled and is 2½ times the white rate.

"Any further failure to meet the needs of the Negro population, any further broadening of the gap between white and Negro citizens in their experience of the possibilities held out by the American dream can only lead to increasing unrest, disorder, and a mounting risk of violence," Young said.

The Negro leader, in testimony prepared for a Senate Government Operations subcommittee investigating the plight of the cities, pointed out that Washington D.C. and Newark N.J., each have more than 50 per cent Negroes.

He said that Detroit, Baltimore, Cleveland, Ohio, St. Louis, Mo., New Orleans, La., Memphis, Tenn. and Atlanta Ga. now have at least one-third Negro populations and will become more than 50 per cent Negro "before long."

In Chicago, Philadelphia, Cincimati, Ohio, Indianapolis, Ind., and Oakland, Calif., Negroes constitute more than one-fourth of the population, he said.

Young Woman, 27, May Be Ohio's Prettiest Contractor

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The 27-year-old boss of the Zimmerman Excavating Co. may be Ohio's prettiest contractor.

JoAnn Zimmerman, a former student at fashionable Bryn Mawr College, heads a contracting company in Mansfield inherited from her father, the late Joseph J. Zimmerman. Her mother is the firm's vice president.

Her decision to take over the company was made suddenly last February when her father died. But it was not surprising.

"I had wanted to go into the business when I was in school," she said, "but dad didn't feel it was the sort of thing a girl should do."

Had she really planned to prepare for contracting work she might have chosen engineering school rather than Bryn Mawr for two years. She did get a business administration degree from Ashland College.

Miss Zimmerman was in her third year of school teaching when she changed careers.

"It was a real rude awakening to learn how much I didn't know — and I'm still learning," she said. She has 20 "teachers" in the men employes of the Zimmerman firm. She credits them with helping her through her "initiation period."

Yuletide Festival Planned Sunday At Guilford Lake

LISBON — The Guilford Lake Ruritan Club will sponsor its second annual Christmas festival and carol sing at 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

President Robert Greenawalt said the event will be held around a lighted tree in Rudy Falk's yard on the north side of the lake between the picnic pavilion and the entrance to the public beach.

Chairman Richard Andrus reminded the festival is for the entire community as well as for all who camp or vacation at the lake.

Mrs. Shirley Novak of Clewell's Landing will play the organ for carol singing. There will be bonfires and seats will be provided. Andrus said the club will distribute treats to the children.

Three More Ohioans Killed In Viet Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three Ohioans were on Tuesday's Defense Department list of U. S. servicemen killed in action in the Vietnam war.

They were Army Spec 4 George A. Sanders of Bloomingdale, Marine Lance Cpl. William H. Bator of Akron and Marine Pfc. Jack W. Logan Jr. of Kirtland.

Less In Reunification

Bonn Interest In France And Soviet To Increase

By CARL HARTMAN

BONN, Germany (AP) — Under Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger, the West German government can be expected to show a lot more interest in good relations with President Charles de Gaulle and the Soviet bloc and less in reunification with East Germany and Berlin.

This is the picture that emerges from Kiesinger's first statement Tuesday to the Bundestag, traditionally a painstaking product of pulling and hauling within a new government. This one was even harder to produce since Foreign Minister Willy Brandt and his Social Democrats were taking part for the first time with Kiesinger's Christian Democrats.

The changes from Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's statement of policy 13 months ago are marked.

Erhard limited himself to a brief and mild statement on France.

"Friendship between our people and the French is a pledge of the hope of all Europeans that the continent will find a political form. To this end all possibilities of the French-German friendship treaty are to be used," Erhard said.

Kiesinger's message came out loud and clear.

"The decisive role for the future of Europe revolves on the development of German-French relations," he said. "Peace and order in Europe, hoped for by both East and West, is unthinkable without a close and confidential relationship between Germany and France."

Erhard set reunification as the main goal of his government's policy. He put the blame for failure to achieve this on the Soviet Union and its "threats and ultimatums."

Kiesinger put the will to peace and understanding among peoples as the basis of West German policy. Reunification, he said mildly, had been prevented by "political conditions" and there was no foreseeing when it would come about.

Chemical Treatment Seen As Jack Ruby's Scant Hope

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Doctors say Jack Ruby must pin his probably scant hopes for survival on chemical treatment of the cancer racing through his body.

They gave this word Tuesday as the 55-year-old slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald continued to undergo extensive tests.

Dr. Jack Barnett said Ruby cannot be cured by surgery because the cancer already has spread too far.

Ruby knows the nature of his illness. He was told Saturday.

Nonetheless, a hospital report said, he is "reasonably cheerful and continues to be free of pain" except for mild discomfort from chest tubes inserted to drain off excess fluid.

Barnett said a second malignant tumor was found — this one in the pleura, or lining between the chest and lung. It was of the same variety as a lymph node taken from Ruby's neck four days ago, he said.

Fluid from the chest likewise contains malignant cells, pathologists reported.

Ruby faces a retrial on charges of murdering Oswald, the man the Warren Commission named as the man who killed President John F. Kennedy Nov. 22, 1963, in Dallas.

The disclosure of new cancer dimmed chances for his going on trial again, however. The case has been transferred from Dallas to Wichita Falls.

Dr. Coppolino Due To Take Stand Today

FREEHOLD, N.J. (AP) — Dr. Carl Coppolino may take the witness stand today to defend himself against the charge of strangling retired Army Col. William E. Farber.

As the defense prepared to rest its case today there were indications that Coppolino was being persuaded by counsel to testify.

Defense lawyer F. Lee Bailey of Boston was understood to have talked to Coppolino in his jail cell Tuesday night about whether the 34-year-old anesthesiologist, hypnotist and writer would take the stand.

Barred by judicial ruling from discussing the case out of court, Bailey shrugged off all questions as to whether a decision had been reached.

Two defense pathologists testified Tuesday that Farber's sudden death in 1963 could have been caused by a heart attack brought on by what they diagnosed as severe arterial sclerosis.

Dr. Joseph Spelman, Philadelphia's chief medical examiner, and Dr. Richard Ford, medical examiner from Boston, further claimed that Farber's larynx, or voice box, was fractured after his death — possibly by morticians or by grave diggers who exhumed his body.

Farber, a retired artillery officer, and his wife, Marjorie, were neighbors of Dr. Coppolino and his first wife, Carmela, in New Jersey's suburban Middletown Township.

Mrs. Farber, 52, testified that Coppolino strangled and smothered her husband with a pillow while she watched in a hypnotic trance. She admitted having a love affair with Coppolino before her husband's death.

On the stand Tuesday, Anna Coppolino, the doctor's mother, testified that Mrs. Farber told her "she wanted to marry my son."

A frail, gray-haired woman, Mrs. Coppolino said the conversation took place in Florida last year shortly after Carmela's sudden death at the age of 32. Coppolino has been charged in Sarasota, Fla., with drugging Carmela to death.

"I told her she was crazy. She was old enough to be his mother," Mrs. Coppolino said.

Veteran Actor Dies Of Cancer

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Veteran character actor Charles Watts, a former drama professor at Peabody College, Oregon State and Ohio University, died of cancer Tuesday.

Watts died at Vanderbilt Hospital after a lengthy illness. He had returned to nearby Clarksville, Tenn., two years ago to make his home with his mother.

His hollywood career had included character roles in films such as "Giant," "Affair to Remember," "The Big Circus," "Days of Wine and Roses" and "Baby, the Rain Must Fall."

He had also made several spot appearances on television and played in numerous Broadway productions.

A 1923 graduate of Vanderbilt University, Watts did post graduate work at Peabody College and the Feagin School of Dramatics in New York.

He served as ad instructor in drama and speech at Peabody before becoming professor of dramatics at Oregon State College and later Ohio University.

Calls For Education Spending

Cleveland's School Head Cites Big Cities' Crisis

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"The crisis is here" in America's big cities, Cleveland School Supt. Paul Briggs warned Tuesday night in calling for education spending to help create "a new breed of cities."

Problems brought on poverty in cities, he said, may not be solved in this decade. "But I'm sure that if America doesn't solve these problems, we're in for trouble like we've never seen."

Cleveland saw major trouble this summer, when several days of rioting erupted in the city's Hough area, a Negro slum. Scenes of the Hough riots were included in a film Briggs showed in his appearance before a 14-state Education Symposium on Urban Problems.

Briggs said his city's voters took a big step toward solving school problems by approving a $66 million bond issue for schools Nov. 8. Now it is time for the state to grant big city school districts a greater share of state school foundation funds, he said.

He added: "Traditionally, we Americans only go after problems when we have a crisis. The crisis is here."

Children now living in poverty must be helped "or you're going to hear their voices so loud you'll hear them no matter where you live," Briggs said in discussing Cleveland's continuing exodus of middle-class families to the suburbs.

Dr. Martin Essex, state superintendent of public instruction, opened the two-day conference with a speech calling for state education departments to work closely with teachers' groups.

With the closing of schools affecting 100,000 pupils in suburban Detroit and the teachers' strikes in the Youngstown area, Essex said "it becomes clear that there is urgency for improved understanding and procedures."

Gap Between Whites, Non-Whites Widening

WASHINGTON (AP) — The gap between whites and non-whites is mostly widening even as 10 major U.S. cities move toward Negro citizen majorities, Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League, told senators today.

Despite "all the frenzied activity" in the field of urban problems, said Young, "the gap between non-white citizens in the United States and white citizens has not been closed in most instances it is not even narrowing — it is widening."

He said for example since 1954 Negro unemployment has doubled and is 2½ times the white rate.

"Any further failure to meet the needs of the Negro population, any further broadening of the gap between white and Negro citizens in their experience of the possibilities held out by the American dream can only lead to increasing unrest, disorder, and a mounting risk of violence," Young said.

The Negro leader, in testimony prepared for a Senate Government Operations subcommittee investigating the plight of the cities, pointed out that Washington D.C. and Newark N.J., each have more than 50 per cent Negroes.

He said that Detroit, Baltimore, Cleveland, Ohio, St. Louis, Mo., New Orleans, La., Memphis, Tenn. and Atlanta Ga., now have at least one-third Negro populations and will become more than 50 per cent Negro "before long."

In Chicago, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Ohio, Indianapolis, Ind., and Oakland, Calif., Negroes constitute more than one-fourth of the population, he said.

Young Woman, 27, May Be Ohio's Prettiest Contractor

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The 27-year-old boss of the Zimmerman Excavating Co. may be Ohio's prettiest contractor.

JoAnn Zimmerman, a former student at fashionable Bryn Mawr College, heads a contracting company in Mansfield inherited from her father, the late Joseph J. Zimmerman. Her mother is the firm's vice president.

Her decision to take over the company was made suddenly last February when her father died. But it was not surprising.

"I had wanted to go into the business when I was in school," she said, "but dad didn't feel it was the sort of thing a girl should do."

Had she really planned to prepare for contracting work she might have chosen engineering school rather than Bryn Mawr for two years. She did get a business administration degree from Ashland College.

Miss Zimmerman was in her third year of school teaching when she changed careers.

"It was a real rude awakening to learn how much I didn't know — and I'm still learning," she said. She has 20 "teachers" in the men employes of the Zimmerman firm. She credits them with helping her through her "initiation period."

Yuletide Festival Planned Sunday At Guilford Lake

LISBON — The Guilford Lake Ruritan Club will sponsor its second annual Christmas festival and carol sing at 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

President Robert Greenawalt said the event will be held around a lighted tree in Rudy Falk's yard on the north side of the lake between the picnic pavilion and the entrance to the public beach.

Chairman Richard Andrus reminded the festival is for the entire community as well as for all who camp or vacation at the lake.

Mrs. Shirley Novak of Clewell's Landing will play the organ for carol singing. There will be bonfires and seats will be provided. Andrus said the club will distribute treats to the children.

Bonn Interest In France And Soviet To Increase

By CARL HARTMAN

BONN, Germany (AP) — Under Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger, the West German government can be expected to show a lot more interest in good relations with President Charles de Gaulle and the Soviet Bloc and less in reunification with East Germany and Berlin.

This is the picture that emerges from Kiesinger's first statement Tuesday to the Bundestag, traditionally a painstaking product of pulling and hauling within a new government. This one was even harder to produce since Foreign Minister Willy Brandt and his Social Democrats were taking part for the first time with Kiesinger's Christian Democrats.

The changes from Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's statement of policy 13 months ago are marked.

Erhard limited himself to a brief and mild statement on France.

"Friendship between our people and the French is a pledge of the hope of all Europeans that the continent will find a political form. To this end all possibilities of the French-German friendship treaty are to be used," Erhard said.

Kiesinger's message came out loud and clear.

"The decisive role for the future of Europe revolves on the development of German-French relations," he said. "Peace and order in Europe, hoped for by both East and West, is unthinkable without a close and confidential relationship between Germany and France."

Erhard set reunification as the main goal of his government's policy. He put the blame for failure to achieve this on the Soviet Union and its "threats and ultimatums."

Kiesinger put the will to peace and understanding among peoples as the basis of West German policy. Reunification, he said mildly, had been prevented by "political conditions" and there was no foreseeing when it would come about.

Chemical Treatment Seen As Jack Ruby's Scant Hope

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Doctors say Jack Ruby must pin his probably scant hopes for survival on chemical treatment of the cancer racing through his body.

They gave this word Tuesday as the 55-year-old slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald continued to undergo extensive tests.

Dr. Jack Barnett said Ruby cannot be cured by surgery because the cancer already has spread too far.

Ruby knows the nature of his illness. He was told Saturday.

Nonetheless, a hospital report said, he is "reasonably cheerful and continues to be free of pain" except for mild discomfort from chest tubes inserted to drain off excess fluid.

Barnett said a second malignant tumor was found — this one in the pleura, or lining between the chest and lung. It was of the same variety as a lymph node taken from Ruby's neck four days ago, he said.

Fluid from the chest likewise contains malignant cells, pathologists reported.

Ruby faces a retrial on charges of murdering Oswald, the man the Warren Commission named as the man who killed President John F. Kennedy Nov. 22, 1963, in Dallas.

The disclosure of new cancer dimmed chances for his going on trial again, however. The case has been transferred from Dallas to Wichita Falls.

Dr. Coppolino Due To Take Stand Today

FREEHOLD, N.J. (AP) — Dr. Carl Coppolino may take the witness stand today to defend himself against the charge of strangling retired Army Col. William E. Farber.

As the defense prepared to rest its case today there were indications that Coppolino was being persuaded by counsel to testify.

Defense lawyer F. Lee Bailey of Boston was understood to have talked to Coppolino in his jail cell Tuesday night about whether the 34-year-old anesthesiologist, hypnotist and writer would take the stand.

Barred by judicial ruling from discussing the case out of court, Bailey shrugged off all questions as to whether a decision had been reached.

Two defense pathologists testified Tuesday that Farber's sudden death in 1963 could have been caused by a heart attack brought on by what they diagnosed as severe arterial sclerosis.

Dr. Joseph Spelman, Philadelphia's chief medical examiner, and Dr. Richard Ford, medical examiner from Boston, further claimed that Farber's larynx, or voice box, was fractured after his death — possibly by morticians or by grave diggers who exhumed his body.

Farber, a retired artillery officer, and his wife, Marjorie, were neighbors of Dr. Coppolino and his first wife, Carmela, in New Jersey's suburban Middletown Township.

Mrs. Farber, 52, testified that Coppolino strangled and smothered her husband with a pillow while she watched in a hypnotic trance. She admitted having a love affair with Coppolino before her husband's death.

On the stand Tuesday, Anna Coppolino, the doctor's mother, testified that Mrs. Farber told her "she wanted to marry my son."

A frail, gray-haired woman, Mrs. Coppolino said the conversation took place in Florida last year shortly after Carmela's sudden death at the age of 32. Coppolino has been charged in Sarasota, Fla., with drugging Carmela to death.

"I told her she was crazy. She was old enough to be his mother," Mrs. Coppolino said.

More Policemen, Stronger Laws Urged In Study

CINCINNATI (AP)—City council's crime study committee has recommended additional policemen and stronger laws as means of coping with today's crime problems.

These were among recommendations released by the committee Tuesday after its study of crime in Cincinnati.

The committee suggested that the city hire an additional 91 policemen and increase policemen's salary by $1,000. It also said the city chapter amendment, which requires that firemen be paid the same as policemen, be repealed.

If all the proposals are adopted, they would add $4 million to the city's annual budget. This would include a one-time cost of $60,000 for a survey of the police department by the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

The committee also suggested that a fulltime lawyer be hired for the police department, and that policemen be allowed to live in any part of Hamilton County, not just Cincinnati.

Four million skiers — three times more than 20 years ago—glide down hills and mountains from Maine to Hawaii. The number increases at 20 per cent a year.

Mrs. Helen McClain and Mrs. Hilda Allison, co-chairmen of the project committee, will send baskets of fruits to shut-in members for Christmas.

Mrs. Allison, lecturer, was in charge of last night's program.

Readings were given by Mrs. Helen Hobbs and Mrs. Olive Parkins.

A humorous skit was presented by Mrs. Agnes Herron, Mrs. Thelma Herron and Mrs. Lillian Ewing.

The group sang carols.

Lunch was served 26 by Mrs. Jennie Mills and Mrs. Delores Riddle.

More Policemen, Stronger Laws Urged In Study

CINCINNATI (AP)—City council's crime study committee has recommended additional policemen and stronger laws as means of coping with today's crime problems.

These were among recommendations released by the committee Tuesday after its study of crime in Cincinnati.

The committee suggested that the city hire an additional 91 policemen and increase policemen's salary by $1,000. It also said the city chapter amendment, which requires that firemen be paid the same as policemen, be repealed.

If all the proposals are adopted, they would add $4 million to the city's annual budget. This would include a one-time cost of $60,000 for a survey of the police department by the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

The committee also suggested that a fulltime lawyer be hired for the police department, and that policemen be allowed to live in any part of Hamilton County, not just Cincinnati.

Iraq Firm Asks Arbitration

Syria Spurns Company's Demand In Oil Dispute

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Syria today rejected a demand by the Iraq Petroleum Co. for arbitration of the transit royalties dispute which has stopped the flow of about 20 per cent of the oil Europe gets from the Middle East.

Zuhair Khani, Syrian minister for premiership affairs, told a news conference the Syrian government would consider the arbitration request only when the company pays $11 million Syria is demanding in extra royalties for the first nine months of 1966.

A company statement issued Tuesday night in London invoked the 1955 agreement between Syria and the company. It said the company had requested the Syrian government to refer the dispute to arbitration by a panel of two experts who would in turn name an umpire.

If arbitration failed, the company added, the dispute should then be referred to the International Court of Justice at The Hague.

Khani said his government's impounding of the firm's assets in Syria to force payment of the extra royalties "constitutes an exercise of the country's national sovereignty in the treatment of commercial firms operating on its territory."

"The company must first abide by the country's laws and pay under reservation, and then seek to arbitrate the dispute," he declared.

Khani said the arbitration might take as long as five years, and "we cannot tolerate having our just demands for the payment of royalties delayed that long."

The government cut off the pipeline across Syria from the Iraqi fields to the ports of Baniyas, Syria, and Tripoli, Lebanon, on Monday and Tuesday. Khani warned that unless the company paid up, the continued stoppage would not only endanger the firm's interests but would also "imperil its entire fate."

He added if the stoppage continued it would eventually lead to the cessation of production from the Iraqi fields. The Iraqi government could not "give the company the opportunity to jeopardize one of the greatest sources of national income for Iraq," Khani said.

In addition to 42 million tons by pipeline, Iraq also sends about 20 million tons of oil to Europe by tanker from the Persian Gulf. The company said it supplied roughly 20 per cent of Western Europe's 1965 estimated imports of 276 million tons.

While a prolonged pipeline shutdown could hurt Western Europe, it would not apparently be too damaging. The Middle East, including Iran, produces more than 400 million tons of oil yearly and much of this finds its way to Europe.

Hearing Ends On Blue Cross Rate Increase

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A hearing on a proposed rate hike by Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania has concluded with virtually no opposition to the increase coming forward.

The two-day hearing, which ended Tuesday, was called by state Insurance Commissioner Audrey Kelly to consider Blue Cross' request for permission to increase rates by 23 per cent and set up a system of period rate adjustments.

Support for the proposal came from hospital officials, physicians and a labor leader.

Solicitors for Allegheny County and Pittsburgh asked for assurances that future rate adjustments would be subject to state controls, but they did not oppose the overall rate increase.

Tuesday, Mrs. Kelly told newsmen, "If I act favorably on the Blue Cross request, Blue Cross would have its rating system—but with the ceilings."

She took the Blue Cross proposal under advisement.

Blue Cross has asked for permission to cut or increase rates to various groups annually, depending on usage by the groups during the year.

Witnesses supporting the rate increase Tuesday included Richard F. Seifert, a Johnstown hospital administrator and president of the Hospital Association of Pennsylvania, and Joseph Sabel, president of Local 590 of the Food Employes' Union.

The only opposition to the increase during the two days came from State Rep. Schmitt, D — Westmoreland, who said greater efficiency at hospitals could reduce costs.

For Deeds, Mortgages, Leases

Microfilming Plan Set Up

Beginning Jan. 3, all deeds, mortgages and leases will be microfilmed the same day they are brought to the Columbiana County Courthouse at Lisbon for recording.

The new "security" program was announced today by County Recorder John P. Wargo.

THE RECORDER said the filmed copy will be stored in a bank vault and pointed out that the microfilm copies could be used to replace the deed and mortgage books currently in use "should space become critical" in his office.

Wargo said that since he assumed office two years ago, "the microfilming of older records was again adopted. This program had been dropped for the four years prior to 1965. During the past two years, a 22-year accumulation of records, was filmed."

He said he plans to pursue this same policy with the new board of county commissioners and declared that by the end of 1968, "with the cooperation of the commissioners, all of the older records in his charge could be safeguarded by security microfilm."

STRESSING the importance of the work which will begin Jan. 1, Wargo said there are approximately 253,400 pages of deed, mortgage and lease records of which only one copy exists. "Should these be destroyed by fire," he continued, "Columbiana County could only account for them with a pile of ashes. It staggers the imagination to think how disasterous this could be to county property owners, especially those who have lost their original deeds.

COUNTY RECORDER John P. Wargo shows the microfilm equipment which will be placed in use Jan. 3 for security purposes in the recording of vital records.

The county possesses only one copy of these same deeds."

At present, the only microfilm records existing are those concerned with deeds and mortgages through the 1800's and early 1900's.

"This means we have nearly 12 years of deeds and mortgages unaccounted for on film," Wargo added. There has been no filming whatsoever in the past 100 years accumulation of leases, he said.

She was born Oct. 8, 1869, in Duquesne, Pa. She was a member of the Midland Presentation Catholic Church and its Christian Mothers. She was a retired charter member of the Ladies Catholic Benefit Association of the St. Mary's Catholic Church branch.

In addition to her daughter, she is survived by a son, Desmond J. McKenna of McKeesport, Pa., three grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

A Requiem High Mass will be sung Saturday at 10 a. m. at the Midland church by the Rev. Stephen Burdis. Burial will be in St. Mary's Catholic Church Cemetery, McKeesport.

None of the nine people present responded to an invitation to speak for or against the proposal which is scheduled for construction in 1967.

Sherman S. Price, design and planning engineer in the Division 11 office at New Philadelphia, read a description of the work, and Richard Sheafer, design engineer, pointed to the work areas on a wall map.

Richard Robinson, public relations officer; Howard Pfeiffer, an engineer in the right-of-way department, and Janet Morgan, Price's secretary, attended.

Charge Dropped In Lisbon Court; New Count Seen

A charge filed against an East Liverpool man was dismissed Tuesday in Juvenile Court at Lisbon because the complainant did not see the offense.

Robert Graham, 21, of Youngs Alley was charged with abusing Edna Louise Wolfe, 17, Nov. 13 at her home in Salineville. The girl's mother, Mrs. Wyona Wolfe, signed the affidavit.

Bernard Fineman of East Liverpool, counsel for the defendant, moved for dismissal of the charge, citing a Cleveland Municipal Court decision holding that a private citizen cannot file a misdemeanor charge unless he was a witness.

Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis said James Miller, Juvenile Court probation officer, has the authority to file the complaint and Graham will be charged again.

Authorities say the girl is a sister of Graham's wife, Patty Wolfe Graham, and Graham injured Edna while trying to force her to tell him where his wife was.

Chamber Board Backs Fast Time For Ohio In 1967

Acting in a referendum arranged by the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Trustees of the East Liverpool Area Chamber went on record Tuesday afternoon in favor of statewide Daylight Saving Time from April to September in 1967.

The Ohio Chamber is making a survey of local organizations throughout the state in order to present a summary of opinion to the General Assembly early next year.

Under a federal law enacted in 1966, the entire United States will observe "fast" time in the summer of 1967. The only exceptions will be in states in which the State Legislatures specifically provide for observance of standard time.

The federal law would put all states on "fast" time from the last Sunday of April until the last Sunday of October. Eastern Ohio, including the East Liverpool area, now observes "fast" time in that interval. The Chamber board's recommendation yesterday would cut a month off the "fast" time period — from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday of September.

Montana is the locale of the only sapphire mines in the United States of any importance.

Motorist, 18, Jailed In Drunk Driving Case

Paul Allen DeGarmo, 18, of 413 Broadway, Wellsville, cited after a one-car crash Friday night on W. 8th St. at Shadyside Ave., was fined $250 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail when he pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff also ordered a 90-day suspension in the youth's driver's license.

The 1963 four - door sedan which DeGarmo was driving was listed as a possible total loss. He told police he started to pass another auto and lost control when his car hit the medial strip in the four - lane highway.

Crash Hurts Area Mother And Daughter

A Westfield mother and her daughter were injured slightly when the station wagon driven by the mother struck a tree along Annesley Rd. Tuesday about 6:45 p. m.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Mrs. Connie Sue Wolfe, 20, of Westfield Rd. was headed east in a 1962 station wagon when the vehicle went off the south side of the roadway and hit a tree about one-tenth of a mile east of Route 267.

The mother was treated at City Hospital for abrasions of the nose and a bruised elbow. Her daughter, Penni Sue, 2, was treated for a bruise of the forehead.

The mother told officers the child pulled the steering wheel, causing the car to veer.

Donald W. Jackson, 37, of Leetonia R. D. 1 was cited after his 1967 sedan struck the rear of another auto on Route 45 just south of Salem at 5:45 p. m.

Jackson was headed south when his car hit a 1955 coach operated by Thomas Hinchcliffe, 19, of Lisbon R.D. who had slowed for traffic. Jackson was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Highway Plan Hearing's Brief

LISBON — A public hearing on the State Highway Department's plan to relocate a half mile of Route 518 in Franklin Township lasted just 15 minutes this morning in Village Hall.

None of the nine people present responded to an invitation to speak for or against the proposal which is scheduled for construction in 1967.

Sherman S. Price, design and planning engineer in the Division 11 office at New Philadelphia, read a description of the work, and Richard Sheafer, design engineer, pointed to the work areas on a wall map.

Richard Robinson, public relations officer; Howard Pfeiffer, an engineer in the right-of-way department, and Janet Morgan, Price's secretary, attended.

Price said the relocation will begin just west of Township Rd. 740 and go eastward to a point 3.3 miles west of the Route 164 junction at Gavers.

Charge Dropped In Lisbon Court; New Count Seen

A charge filed against an East Liverpool man was dismissed Tuesday in Juvenile Court at Lisbon because the complainant did not see the offense.

Robert Graham, 21, of Youngs Alley was charged with abusing Edna Louise Wolfe, 17, Nov. 13 at her home in Salineville. The girl's mother, Mrs. Wyona Wolfe, signed the affidavit.

Bernard Fineman of East Liverpool, counsel for the defendant, moved for dismissal of the charge, citing a Cleveland Municipal Court decision holding that a private citizen cannot file a misdemeanor charge unless he was a witness.

Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis said James Miller, Juvenile Court probation officer, has the authority to file the complaint and Graham will be charged again.

Authorities say the girl is a sister of Graham's wife, Patty Wolfe Graham, and Graham injured Edna while trying to force her to tell him where his wife was.

Chamber Board Backs Fast Time For Ohio In 1967

Acting in a referendum arranged by the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Trustees of the East Liverpool Area Chamber went on record Tuesday afternoon in favor of statewide Daylight Saving Time from April to September in 1967.

The Ohio Chamber is making a survey of local organizations throughout the state in order to present a summary of opinion to the General Assembly early next year.

Under a federal law enacted in 1966, the entire United States will observe "fast" time in the summer of 1967. The only exceptions will be in states in which the State Legislatures specifically provide for observance of standard time.

The federal law would put all states on "fast" time from the last Sunday of April until the last Sunday of October. Eastern Ohio, including the East Liverpool area, now observes "fast" time in that interval. The Chamber board's recommendation yesterday would cut a month off the "fast" time period — from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday of September.

Honorable Discharge Given Pennsylvanian

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — Carvin R. Hill, navy petty officer recently freed of charges that he killed his infant son, received an honorable discharge Tuesday.

Hill, of Ellwood City, Pa., reportedly had been paid more than $8,000 in back pay for the time he was held while awaiting trial.

He was released two weeks ago after the suppression of a statement taken by a naval intelligence officer when Hill was arrested.

The Pony Express employed 80 riders and 420 horses.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Actor-singer Elvis Presley has distributed checks totaling $105,000 to charities in Memphis, and in Mississippi, California, Kansas and Nebraska. The gift have become a Christmas tradition for Presley.

Twenty-nine charities received checks in ceremonies in Memphis Tuesday. Names were not disclosed.

Presley began making Christmas contributions to Memphis charities 11 years ago. He started regular dontions to a number of charities after his discharge from the Army in 1961.

NEW YORK (AP)—The reception was in honor of Milton Cross, for 45 years the radio voice of the Metropolitan Opera, but there he was wandering through the lobby of the Hotel Pierre asking: "Has anyone seen my wife?"

Guests, waiting in line to have their invitations to the reception checked, wanted to know what was behind his search.

"How else can I get in," Cross told them. "She's got my ticket."

Honorable Discharge Given Pennsylvanian

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — Carvin R. Hill, navy petty officer recently freed of charges that he killed his infant son, received an honorable discharge Tuesday.

Hill, of Ellwood City, Pa., reportedly had been paid more than $8,000 in back pay for the time he was held while awaiting trial.

He was released two weeks ago after the suppression of a statement taken by a naval intelligence officer when Hill was arrested.

The Pony Express employed 80 riders and 420 horses.

People In News

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Actor-singer Elvis Presley has distributed checks totaling $105,000 to charities in Memphis, and in Mississippi, California, Kansas and Nebraska. The gift have become a Christmas tradition for Presley.

Twenty-nine charities received checks in ceremonies in Memphis Tuesday. Names were not disclosed.

Presley began making Christmas contributions to Memphis charities 11 years ago. He started regular dontions to a number of charities after his discharge from the Army in 1961.

NEW YORK (AP)—The reception was in honor of Milton Cross, for 45 years the radio voice of the Metropolitan Opera, but there he was wandering through the lobby of the Hotel Pierre asking: "Has anyone seen my wife?"

Guests, waiting in line to have their invitations to the reception checked, wanted to know what was behind his search.

"How else can I get in," Cross told them. "She's got my ticket."

Former Resident Of Area Marks 100th Birthday

HANOVERTON — A celebration Tuesday in a Cleveland Heights home honored William Francis Haessly, born 100 years ago near Millport.

He makes his home with a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Freeman of 1084 Brandon Rd., where his nephew, the Rev. Fr. Cyril M. Fisher, O. P., of Chicago, said mass at 11:30 a. m. by special permission of Bishop John Whealon of Cleveland.

A dinner for the family followed and Mr. Haessly received friends in the afternoon.

He farmed in this area until retirement. His threshing machine traveled from farm to farm for many summers.

He has been a member of St. Philip Neri Catholic Church at Dungannon all his life. He was an active churchman and did considerable work maintaining church property.

In recent years, he has been working with wood as a hobby and gives his handwork to relatives and friends.

Besides his daughter, Dorothy, he has another daughter, Mrs. Edith Wehner of Chester, W. Va., and a son, Arthur Haessly, formerly of Salem, who lives on the Hanoverton farm where his father lived 40 years. There are 10 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren.

Louisville Cabbie Just Had Bad Week

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — It was just a bad week for cab driver Henry Lynch.

He picked up an elderly lady at Jewish Hospital and drove to the address she gave.

As Lynch arrived, so did police who explained that the woman had walked away from the hospital without authorization.

Two days later, Mrs. Larry Boeck's son became ill and his school called for a cab.

Lynch made the run and delivered the youngster to Mrs. Boeck. It wasn't her son — another boy had taken the taxi by mistake.

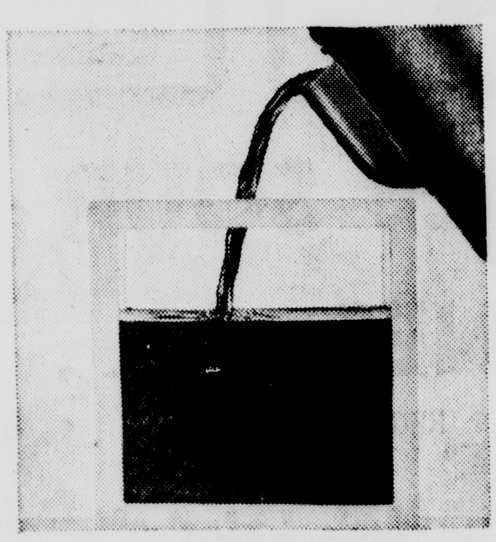
Maxwell House Announces Freeze-Dried Coffee

Now, an entirely new process called freeze-drying actually makes it possible for you to brew real percolated coffee...without a percolator!

Maxim® is an entirely new form of coffee. Maxim is crystals of real percolated coffee. Concentrated crystals with the power to turn every cup in your house into a percolator!

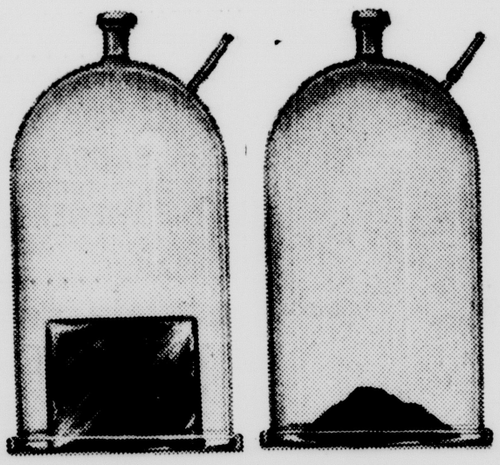
Maxim is an amazing breakthrough in coffee-making. It is entirely different from any instant coffee. It is entirely different from any ground coffee. Maxim is, in fact, a totally new form of coffee—concentrated crystals of real percolated coffee.

Maxim's secret is a new process known as freeze-drying. It is the result of years of coffee research at Maxwell House. A way has been discovered to transform actual pot-brewed coffee into concentrated crystals. Here's how it is done.



Freshly percolated coffee is poured into freezing containers.

Maxim begins with pots and pots of dark, strong, percolated coffee. This freshly brewed coffee is poured into special freezing containers. Here it is flash-frozen at the peak of perfection, when coffee flavor and aroma are at their breakfast-time best.



Vacuum chamber turns block of frozen coffee into crystals.

After the coffee is frozen, the ice is drawn off—not by heat which destroys flavor—but by an amazing new vacuum process. It spirits the ice away without melting it!

Freeze-Dried crystals that need no refrigeration!

Different from any other form of coffee.

You can tell at once that Maxim is unlike any other coffee you have ever used. Take a spoonful, and you see golden brown crystals that actually sparkle. Smell them, and you smell the rich, roasted aroma of freshly percolated coffee.

Turns your cup into a percolator!

The real miracle happens in your cup. The moment you add hot water Maxim's concentrated crystals explode into real percolated coffee. Maxim actually turns every cup in your house into a percolator! No pots. No grounds. No "instant" taste!

Important—you need less per cup!

Maxim's crystals are concentrated, so you use less per cup than with any other form of coffee. For each cup, use a slightly rounded teaspoon (more or less to taste). You'll find it's surprisingly thrifty to use Maxim!

Discover Maxim—America's first Freeze-Dried coffee.

Get Maxim soon. Try it and see if you can detect a difference between Maxim and the good coffee you've been brewing in your percolator! You'll get the surprise of your coffee-loving life! Discover Maxim—America's first Freeze-Dried coffee—new from Maxwell House.

Look for Maxim on your grocer's coffee shelf. One 4 oz. jar makes as many cups as one pound of ground coffee. Usually costs no more.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: A woman in our card club is one of the dearest people I know. I wouldn't hurt her feelings for the world but she has mice in her house.

Yesterday a little gray mouse ran across my feet during the card game and I thought I'd pass out. I managed to keep the discovery to myself but I was so nervous I lost $4. When the refreshments were served I couldn't eat a thing.

Should I tell her or would it be wise to send her a mouse trap anonymously? — DILLY OF A DILEMMA.

Dear Dilly: Say nothing, and don't send any anonymous gifts. Sooner or later someone in the family will learn that they have uninvited guests running around and something will be done about it.

Bad News

Dear Ann: I would like to address this letter to "Veteran of Domestic Wars" — the poor little guy who is unable to give his wife sufficient physical attention because her timing is so bad.

Imagine! He comes from work and she tells him the washing machine broke and it means a repair bill; or one of the kids needs dental braces and it will cost $600.

When does he consider the time right for such news? Or maybe she shouldn't bother him at all. She could tell the mailman or the lady next door but I don't think they would come up with the money.

Does "Vet" believe his wife should wait until the first thing in the morning" No. That would ruin his whole day. Should she call him at work right after lunch? He'd hate that.

I say a wife's best bet is before dinner. She must catch him while he is still awake and before he grabs the newspaper or turns on the TV.

If "Vet" would write and tell us wives when is the best time to ask a husband for extra money without rendering him impotent I would be grateful. — JUST ME.

-:-

Dear Me: If "Vet" sees this, I hope he will respond because this is a question that only a husband can answer.

Loveless Family

Dear Ann: That was a wonderfully wise letter from the woman who said we must not forget how important it is for parents to show their children they are loved.

My sister and I both suffered from emotional problems because we felt rejected. Our mother was angry with us most of the time. We seldom received a smile or a word of encouragement. Now, many years later I know why she was cold and uncommunicative.

Like so many other women, her husband paid no attention to her. She hungered for his love and approval and she never got it. I'm reminded of something I read in your column: "The greatest gift a father can give his children is to love their mother."—NOW I KNOW WHY.

Dear Friend: It's unfortunate that the insight to your mother's sad life didn't come earlier. It could have saved you some grief.

Children who are ignored or treated coldly often feel that they are inadequate — that something is wrong with them. How sad that they never learn the truth — that the real inadequacy lies with one parent or both.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Wives Get OK To Visit Husbands In Vietnam

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — The U. S. Embassy announced today that wives of American civilian officials stationed in Vietnam can come to Saigon to visit their husbands during the Christmas holidays.

Deputy Ambassador William J. Porter directed that wives but no children could visit in Saigon from Dec. 23 until Jan. 3.

Some 2,000 wives, children and other dependents of U. S. officials were ordered out of Vietnam in February 1966, as a safety precaution. Many of them live in Bangkok, Manila and Hong Kong.

Chinese emperors once imposed the "Great Kow-tow" on emissaries from foreign countries. The ritual called for three kneelings and nine prostrations before the emperor's throne.

Press Secretary To Resign At White House, Paper Says

NEW YORK (AP) — The Daily News reported today that Bill D. Moyers, White House press secretary and special assistant to the President, will resign soon.

"Sources close to the White House reported that Moyers has not been happy since Walt Rostow moved into the White House as foreign policy adviser to Johnson and secretary of the National Security Council," the News story said.

The news account continued: "Moyers, who had been in Washington while Johnson was in Texas recuperating from his recent operations, does not plan to be with the President when he returns to the ranch over the Christmas-New Year's holidays.

"Moyers, who had been advising the President on foreign affairs, had wanted to quit for some time. In recent weeks it was felt that he wanted to replace Henry Cabot Lodge as special ambassador in Saigon. Apparently, this post has been denied him."

The News said the 32-year-old Moyers "will very likely join Newsday in an executive capacity."

Asked for comment on the report, Stan Asimov, administrative editor of Newsday, said: "Newsday has no comment on the report."

Newsday is a daily newspaper published in Garden City, N. Y.

Moyers could not be reached immediately for comment.

Jerry Lewis Son's Induction Is Delayed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Comedian Jerry Lewis' son Gary — who makes $250,000 a year as a rock 'n roll bandleader—awaited word today on his chances of becoming a $80-a-month Army private.

The 21-year-old singer showed up for induction Tuesday with a letter from his physician. Afterward an Army spokesman said, "The induction has been delayed on the basis of new evidence. A new examination has been ordered to verify the evidence."

Dear Friend: It's unfortunate that the insight to your mother's sad life didn't come earlier. It could have saved you some grief.

Children who are ignored or treated coldly often feel that they are inadequate — that something is wrong with them. How sad that they never learn the truth — that the real inadequacy lies with one parent or both.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Wives Get OK To Visit Husbands In Vietnam

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — The U. S. Embassy announced today that wives of American civilian officials stationed in Vietnam can come to Saigon to visit their husbands during the Christmas holidays.

Deputy Ambassador William J. Porter directed that wives but no children could visit in Saigon from Dec. 23 until Jan. 3.

Some 2,000 wives, children and other dependents of U. S. officials were ordered out of Vietnam in February 1966, as a safety precaution. Many of them live in Bangkok, Manila and Hong Kong.

Chinese emperors once imposed the "Great Kow-tow" on emissaries from foreign countries. The ritual called for three kneelings and nine prostrations before the emperor's throne.

Press Secretary To Resign At White House, Paper Says

NEW YORK (AP) — The Daily News reported today that Bill D. Moyers, White House press secretary and special assistant to the President, will resign soon.

"Sources close to the White House reported that Moyers has not been happy since Walt Rostow moved into the White House as foreign policy adviser to Johnson and secretary of the National Security Council," the News story said.

The news account continued: "Moyers, who had been in Washington while Johnson was in Texas recuperating from his recent operations, does not plan to be with the President when he returns to the ranch over the Christmas-New Year's holidays.

"Moyers, who had been advising the President on foreign affairs, had wanted to quit for some time. In recent weeks it was felt that he wanted to replace Henry Cabot Lodge as special ambassador in Saigon. Apparently, this post has been denied him."

The News said the 32-year-old Moyers "will very likely join Newsday in an executive capacity."

Asked for comment on the report, Stan Asimov, administrative editor of Newsday, said: "Newsday has no comment on the report."

Newsday is a daily newspaper published in Garden City, N. Y.

Moyers could not be reached immediately for comment.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I've been testing this hint for over a month before sending it to you. You know those colorful, plastic mesh bags that fruit, onions, etc., come in?

They are the "living end" for scrubbing pots and pans.

Since the mesh is so heavy and "knotted", it does an excellent scrubbing job. Because it is so loosely woven, food particles rinse out easily (it just defies dirt) and the scrubber dries quickly.

ANNE MURRAY.

Yes, I've tried it and you are exactly right.

The greatest thing about it is that it was free! What has anyone got to lose by trying it?

Also, did you know you could make a pompon out of it by gathering it with a vegetable wire?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I was asked to bring gelatin fruit salad for a shower and the day I bought the fruits, I also bought cupcake liners.

I prepared my salad and when it was ready to mold, I put it in the paper fluted liners that were in the tins, filled them and put them in the refrigerator to get firm.

I carried the salad in the tins to the party . . . no mess and I had individual salads that were easy to serve.

PLEASED

DEAR HELOISE: To keep my tablecloths from wrinkling I place a piece of corrugated cardboard (cut from a cardboard box from the store) between the ironed, folded cloths before storing them in the linen closet. (In other words, I wrap the cloth around the piece of cardboard.)

I covered each piece of cardboard with adhesive backed plastic paper to pretty-up the closet . . . but this is not really necessary.

And, another good thing about it is that these boxes cost nothing.

BETTY C.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: It's a good thing God made mothers! Nobody else would put up with small boys—would they?

DUPLANTIS.

Yes, but aren't they nice? Wish I had two more.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: The greatest idea you ever gave us was to run a piece of elastic through the small hem in a plain top sheet, pinning each end with safety pins, to make it "contour".

May I add to that?

I now run elastic through both ends of a plain sheet (Making the elastic 12 inches shorter than the sheet is wide) and have beautiful bottom contour sheets, which are so easy to put on the beds.

This is a good idea if you have heavy or oversized mattresses and have difficulty getting sheets to fit them.

STELLA RAINA.

DEAR HELOISE: When waxing large floor areas, I use an old, clean dust mop and a large pan.

I pour the liquid wax into the pan, dip my mop into the wax, drain off the excess wax, then distribute it in small areas and wax away . . . .

This method is used in hospitals and is quick and very effective.

MRS. H.

Yes, it's true. Your idea is good but did you know that if you wet your mop first in water, then wring it out before putting it in your wax, that it wouldn't waste so much wax? Makes the mop easier to wash, too.

Try this method.

It works.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I date all clippings I wish to keep from newspapers.

Rereading old clippings years later can be really frustrating in trying to remember "when?"

Food is easy to prepare electrically because there's an accurate flow of flameless heat for positive cooking control. Means less meat shrinkage...more succulent flavor in all electrically prepared foods. And the whole range is fully automatic...from the surface units to the oven.

An electric range is easier to keep spotless, too. Removable surface units are easy to clean. Even the oven is easy to clean. Teflon®-coated oven walls or removable oven liners make cleaning a snap! And self-cleaning ovens, found only on electric ranges, let you clean the oven automatically by simply pushing a button.

Santa and the Giant Fighter

By Lucrece Beale

Billy gets the Rosanna Ruby and the Harp Witch puts it in a magic necklace. Then the witch said Billy must not only destroy Goko but all the giants who live with him.

CHAPTER NINE

Billy's teeth chattered so loud he was afraid that Santa and the Harp Witch might hear it.

He was brave as any boy and he was ready to fight Goko the giant. But how could he fight Goko's brothers and his cousins and his nephews?

Santa was discouraged, too. "It can't be done," he groaned. "How can one boy slay so many?"

"He doesn't have to slay them!" rasped the witch. "There are other ways."

—:—

SHE TOLD them about a powerful potion which mixed in the giants' food would turn them into pigs.

"Where are we to get this potion?" asked Santa.

"From the eyes of Ha-Ha the laughing ghost," wheezed the witch. "Make Ha-Ha cry and catch his tears. Three drops will be enough!"

"Why not use this marvelous potion on Goko himself?" exclaimed Santa.

The witch shook her head. "Goko is too powerful. He cannot be turned into any other creature."

The witch gave Billy a little bottle to hold Ha-Ha's tears and she gave Santa a pair of slippers that would take them to Ghostland in seven enormous steps.

Santa put on the slippers and Billy climbed on his back and off they went. With the first step they crossed the ocean. The second step took them over a mighty mountain range. Four more steps and they crossed four continents.

The seventh step brought them to Ghostland, where spirits and spooks and phantoms lived and no human ever goes.

GHOSTS are happy creatures. They sing and play all the day. But Ha-Ha was the happiest ghost in the land. He was called Ha-Ha because he seemed never to stop laughing.

Santa and Billy found Ha-Ha swinging in a rope swing hung from a weeping willow tree. He was dressed in a white sheet that billowed around him like a sail. He was singing a laughing children's song.

How in the world could they get tears from such a joyful creature?

Santa and Billy found Ha-Ha in Ghostland.

Santa told him who they were and why they had come. Ha-Ha said it was impossible to get tears from him. He had never cried in his life.

"Then," said Santa, "the moon will never rise again."

Ha-Ha laughed. "I don't like moonlight," he said.

"The giant will force the Fairy Queen to marry him," said Santa. "He will be King of all Fairyland."

"That's nothing to me," laughed Ha-Ha.

"The giant has vowed to capture me on Christmas Eve," said Santa.

"Ha ha!" laughed Ha-Ha.

"There will be no more Christmas," said Santa.

—:—

HA-HA stopped laughing. "No more toys? No more stockings? No more Christmas trees? Not even for ghosts?"

"Not for anyone in all the world," said Santa.

Tears came in Ha-Ha's eyes. They began to roll down his cheeks. "Never Christmas again!" he sobbed. "How sad!"

Billy held out his little bottle and caught Ha-Ha's tears as they dropped from his chin. In two minutes the bottle was full.

"It's all right now," smiled Billy. "Thank you for your help."

But Ha-Ha kept right on crying. "No more Christmas!" he sniffed. "How will we ever manage?"

"We will manage I think!" promised Santa and he strode out of Ghostland with Billy on his back.

They came to the cave where Goko the giant had hidden the moon. Santa took off the Harp Witch's slippers and gave them to the boy.

Then Santa said, "You have the magic words to unlock the moon and the ruby necklace and Ha-Ha's tears. This is all the help I can give you. I must return to Santa Land now for the Fairy Queen said the rest must be done by you alone."

Billy nodded solemnly. He clutched his wooden sword and went alone into the cave.

Ohio Medical Board Eyes Sheppard Status

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Medical Board may consider the status of Samuel H. Sheppard's osteopath license at a meeting Wednesday, although it has no request from him to do so.

A board spokesman said the matter could come up since the question of whether Sheppard's acquittal on a murder charge automatically restored the license which he lost 12 years ago.

Dr. W. T. Washam, board secretary, said officials had expected Sheppard to apply for reinstatement but added: "We have had no communication from Dr. Sheppard whatsoever."

Sheppard lost his license after being convicted in the slaying of his first wife, Marilyn, in 1954. Subsequently he won a new trial and was found innocent last month in Cleveland.

Of all U.S. presidents, John Tyler had the largest number of children, 14.

Santa and the Giant Fighter

By Lucrece Beale

Billy gets the Rosanna Ruby and the Harp Witch puts it in a magic necklace. Then the witch said Billy must not only destroy Goko but all the giants who live with him.

CHAPTER NINE

Billy's teeth chattered so loud he was afraid that Santa and the Harp Witch might hear it.

He was brave as any boy and he was ready to fight Goko the giant. But how could he fight Goko's brothers and his cousins and his nephews?

Santa was discouraged, too. "It can't be done," he groaned. "How can one boy slay so many?"

"He doesn't have to slay them!" rasped the witch. "There are other ways."

—:—

SHE TOLD them about a powerful potion which mixed in the giants' food would turn them into pigs.

"Where are we to get this potion?" asked Santa.

"From the eyes of Ha-Ha the laughing ghost," wheezed the witch. "Make Ha-Ha cry and catch his tears. Three drops will be enough!"

"Why not use this marvelous potion on Goko himself?" exclaimed Santa.

The witch shook her head. "Goko is too powerful. He cannot be turned into any other creature."

The witch gave Billy a little bottle to hold Ha-Ha's tears and she gave Santa a pair of slippers that would take them to Ghostland in seven enormous steps.

Santa put on the slippers and Billy climbed on his back and off they went. With the first step they crossed the ocean. The second step took them over a mighty mountain range. Four more steps and they crossed four continents.

The seventh step brought them to Ghostland, where spirits and spooks and phantoms lived and no human ever goes.

GHOSTS are happy creatures. They sing and play all the day. But Ha-Ha was the happiest ghost in the land. He was called Ha-Ha because he seemed never to stop laughing.

Santa and Billy found Ha-Ha swinging in a rope swing hung from a weeping willow tree. He was dressed in a white sheet that billowed around him like a sail. He was singing a laughing children's song.

How in the world could they get tears from such a joyful creature?

Santa and Billy found Ha-Ha in Ghostland.

Santa told him who they were and why they had come. Ha-Ha said it was impossible to get tears from him. He had never cried in his life.

"Then," said Santa, "the moon will never rise again."

Ha-Ha laughed. "I don't like moonlight," he said.

"The giant will force the Fairy Queen to marry him," said Santa. "He will be King of all Fairyland."

"That's nothing to me," laughed Ha-Ha.

"The giant has vowed to capture me on Christmas Eve," said Santa.

"Ha ha!" laughed Ha-Ha.

"There will be no more Christmas," said Santa.

—:—

HA-HA stopped laughing. "No more toys? No more stockings? No more Christmas trees? Not even for ghosts?"

"Not for anyone in all the world," said Santa.

Tears came in Ha-Ha's eyes. They began to roll down his cheeks. "Never Christmas again!" he sobbed. "How sad!"

Billy held out his little bottle and caught Ha-Ha's tears as they dropped from his chin. In two minutes the bottle was full.

"It's all right now," smiled Billy. "Thank you for your help."

But Ha-Ha kept right on crying. "No more Christmas!" he sniffed. "How will we ever manage?"

"We will manage I think!" promised Santa and he strode out of Ghostland with Billy on his back.

They came to the cave where Goko the giant had hidden the moon. Santa took off the Harp Witch's slippers and gave them to the boy.

Then Santa said, "You have the magic words to unlock the moon and the ruby necklace and Ha-Ha's tears. This is all the help I can give you. I must return to Santa Land now for the Fairy Queen said the rest must be done by you alone."

Billy nodded solemnly. He clutched his wooden sword and went alone into the cave.

Tomorrow: Goko the Giant

Ohio Medical Board Eyes Sheppard Status

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Medical Board may consider the status of Samuel H. Sheppard's osteopath license at a meeting Wednesday, although it has no request from him to do so.

A board spokesman said the matter could come up since the question of whether Sheppard's acquittal on a murder charge automatically restored the license which he lost 12 years ago.

Dr. W. T. Washam, board secretary, said officials had expected Sheppard to apply for reinstatement but added: "We have had no communication from Dr. Sheppard whatsoever."

Sheppard lost his license after being convicted in the slaying of his first wife, Marilyn, in 1954. Subsequently he won a new trial and was found innocent last month in Cleveland.

Of all U.S. presidents, John Tyler had the largest number of children, 14.

Everybody Really Loves Christmas

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody really loves Christmas.

Some may say they don't like Christmas for this reason, or they don't like it for that reason.

But what their complaints come down to, if put under a long look, is this: They are afraid to put their heart into this Christmas because they are lonesome for some Christmas before.

This can be understood.

The human heart must look ahead to do its duty; but the human heart must look behind also to know that it has been faithful to its highway.

"Tell me how Christmas was in the old days," a sensitive child may ask of his elders today.

Well, child, so glad you asked. Go fetch a branch from the hearth—careful, don't burn yourself, son-and help Grandpa light his old corncob pipe, and he'll be happy to tell you how Christmas was in the old days.

He can close his eyes, and take a puff, and remember when—

Most of the ornaments on the Christmas tree were handmade.

Any decoration that wasn't homemade was fervently believed, as was any glass eye in the neighborhood, to come from Czechoslovakia. So was the cut glass bowl on the golden oak sideboard.

Anything from Czechoslovakia was fragile and reflected light and was prized because it represented an exotic distinction. It stood for a kind of class.

The Christmas tree, as often as not, was selected after a venturesome trip in the family car—interrupted by three flat tires—to the countryside, and hacked down in person and taken home in triumph.

Those who didn't have an automobile would lug it to the nearest trolley line and bring it home by streetcar. The motorman laughed, and the conductor charged no fare for the tree. As a matter of fact, he wouldn't collect a fare for any member of the family who was smaller in height than the tree.

Everybody liked the tree all around except mother.

"It has to be put this way," she said critically, turning its least limbs of wealth to the wall. Everybody agreed that she had the perfect eye to show its splendor to the best advantage.

Everybody went into the kitchen and popped popcorn except Papa. Everybody but Papa got out needles and thread and wove strands of white popcorn and red cranberries around and around and around the green lifted arms of the tree.

Then Papa perched perilously on a chair and fixed to the peak of the tree a five-pointed star made from the tinfoil of cigarette packages.

There were no electric lights. Candles in tin holders were clipped to the outer boughs of the tree, and carefully lit, and there blazed a yuletide glory—a lighted tree that was the bonfire of the family heart.

Then the sleepy children hung up their stockings with care, and on leaden feet trudged to bed, overcome with a drowsy excitement.

During the night Santa Claus came down the chimney.

When the children pawed themselves awake and ran shivering downstairs in their long winter underwear they found in each stocking a golden fresh orange—the only one they knew all year long except if they were ill—and nuts and striped white and red and green candy.

And piled in a small heap under the tree were the toys and presents from Santa Claus for the family to play with and to wear and to share. The room erupted in tumult.

"Is this for me? See what I got? Is this for both of us? Please, can I try it first? Now it's my turn. Well, all right, me next."

And Papa came down and lit the fire.

O Santa Claus, thank you, thank you!

That was Christmas then.

Rescue Boat, 2 Planes, Healthy Lungs Save Man

MUSKEGON, Mich. (AP) — A Coast Guard rescue boat, two Civil Air Patrol planes and a healthy pair of lungs saved Robert P. Tromblee's life Tuesday.

Tromblee, of Mequon, Wis., was flying his twin-engine plane over Lake Michigan when he discovered a fire aboard. He radioed the Muskegon air tower that he was ditching.

The Coast Guard boat and Civil Air Patrol planes went into action.

Tromblee hopped out of his plane. His life raft's special inflating device failed.

So Tromblee blew and blew until the raft was solid enough to support him.

He sent up flares, the planes radioed his position to the Coast Guard and they picked him up.

Tromblee was in good condition — if a bit breathless — at Hackley Hospital in Muskegon.

Airports In Canada Face Dec. 20 Strike

OTTAWA (AP) — A nationwide strike of airport traffic controllers has been called for Dec. 20. The walkout would close Canada's major airports to almost all commercial traffic.

Announcing the strike deadline, K.D. Lyon of Winnipeg, president of the 650-member Canada Air Traffic Control Association, said Tuesday night that the controllers had voted 578 to 63 to strike to back up their demands for more pay from the government. The strike vote was taken after negotiations with the government broke up following 26 months of talks.

Probe Launched By Prosecutor In Fatal Stabbing

CINCINNATI (AP)—The prosecutor's office has taken over investigation of the slaying of a 31-year-old secretary, who was stabbed fatally and then run over by a stolen taxi Aug. 14.

Posteal Laskey, 29, a laborer and former cab driver, has been questioned about the murder, and also the strangulation slayings of six Cincinnati women.

Prosecutor Melvin Rueger said Tuesday his office will direct the investigation into the death of the secretary, Miss Barbara Bowman.

Laskey was arrested last Friday on an assault charge filed by Mrs. Sandra Chapas, 22. He was convicted of following her into her apartment building and was sentenced to 60 days in jail.

Another charge against him, parole violation, was continued in court Tuesday.

Miss Bowman was killed after she had called a taxi to take her from a tavern to her home. Police said the taxi was stolen and the driver was operating it illegally.

It is estimated there are some 44,000 lightning storms every day, taking the earth as a whole.

Settlement Reached, Airline Strike Averted

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Settlement has been reached between National Air Lines and members of the Air Line Pilots Association, averting a strike set for Thursday.

The pilots will get substantial improvements under the new contract, said Leverett Edwards, National Mediation Board member. Details were withheld until the agreement is made formal in writing.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

TV's Lon Chaney

In this week's episode of "The Wild Wild West" (7:30 p.m. Friday, Channel 8) the viewer can see Ross Martin as an old minister, an assistant secretary of state, a tramp and a one - eyed hunchback who is a bell ringer.

Hal Humphrey

These varied disguises are in addition to his regular role as government agent Artemus Gordon, sidekick of Robert Conrad, who is agent James T. West in the TV series.

-:-

IF MARTIN'S one - eyed hunchback doesn't quite measure up in horrendousness to the Quasimodo portrayed by Lon Chaney or Charles Laughton in the "Hunchback of Notre Dame" movies, he can cop the plea that neither of those dedicated actors had to meet the exigencies of an eight-day shooting schedule — to say nothing of effecting four roles in that time.

The late Chaney spent days studying and experimenting with makeup for his roles, then took hours to apply it himself. Martin is lucky if he gets a "Wild Wild West" script two days before he's to shoot it.

Once he and makeup man Dan Schoenfeld decide on the extent and kind of physical alterations involved, Martin must get it done within an hour or two at the most.

IN THE CASE of "Night of the Skull," the aforementioned episode which has Martin essaying four characters, it is not always possible to adhere to the schedule.

Therefore, instead of Martin's being able to stay in a single character for one day's shooting, the director may find it necessary to call upon Martin as the hunchback and the old minister or assistant secretary of state in the same day.

"I sacrifice my skin this way with all of the makeup change," says Martin, "but I love it. I adored Lon Chaney, whom I got to know through seeing his films at New York's Museum of Modern Art. For me, the greatest test of an actor is, can you be believeable doing different things?"

MARTIN, who began his career in radio and then was graduated to the New York stage and ultimately Hollywood movies, believes actors are born, not made, and that the only time they need instruction is when they are stuck on a particular problem presented by a role.

"I went to school after somebody had shaken me up about my acting talent, but I realized later I could have come off just as well in a repertory group. I know guys who shouldn't have been accepted at Actors Studio," adds Martin.

It was a surge of self-confidence which established Martin in Hollywood. He was called in to read for a villain part in a "Peter Gunn" episode, but after seeing the script Martin told the director he would rather play the villain's brother.

"But the heavy is the better part," protested the director.

"Not if I play the brother," Martin answered.

HE GOT the brother part and so impressed producer Blake Edwards with his work that a season or two later Edwards remembered him for a costarring role in his "Mr. Lucky" series. This led to Martin's playing the psychopathic killer in an Edwards movie, "Experiment in Terror," which has also had a run on TV.

In his current Artemus Gordon role with CBS' "Wild Wild West," Martin is frustrated only by the time limitations such a series imposes. He is afraid that too often his wild character disguises become caricatures rather then portrayals.

EVEN SO, he would not trade his part for any other on TV at the moment. Where else could Martin be a Chinese mandarin one week and a Viennese dueling expert the next?

He naturally is aware that character acting does not bring with it the fame and riches which might be his if the Martin face and personality could be cultivated into a standard-type hero image.

"I'd much rather be another Olivier or Muni," he says, hopefully.

Most Britons Don't Like Leaders

LONDON — (NEA)—The average Briton thinks the men governing his country today are the worst set of politicians of the century.

A survey of the London Daily Mail gives black eyes to both the Labor government headed by Prime Minister Harold Wilson and the Conservative party opposition led by Edward Heath.

The survey, which covered 1,500 miles and included interviews with people in their homes, factories and pubs, finds that hardly anyone respects Wilson as a man, though a small number admire his policies. As for Heath, he has failed utterly to register.

—:—

WHEN MEMBERS of the House of Commons voted before the last election to raise their own salaries, it was hoped that the Commons would attract higher caliber men. But this has not happened, in the opinion of most Britons interviewed.

A typical reaction: "The standard of the House of Commons is lower than it has ever been."

In contrast, there is a growth of what the Daily Mail calls "British Gaullists" — people who long for a superman like France's President De Gaulle to cut through the mediocrity of politics and get things done, even at the expense of democratic rights.

A majority of people, however, dislike equally the two alternatives that have been put forward as the new role for Britain — closer association with America, or joining the European Common Market. In many ways Britain, in its present transition period, is more insular and isolationist than ever.

Foreigners often criticize the British for being work - shy. Obviously, they do not enjoy their jobs, nor do they take pride in their work, it is argued. In reply to these criticisms, a Hertfordshire worker points out, "If Chippendale had made nothing but right back legs of chairs he, too, would have been bored."

"Only those fortunate enough to obtain executive positions can ever hope to be stimulated by their work," he adds.

LACK OF incentives is another reason given by British workers for "soldiering" on the job. "Whenever I'm asked to work overtime on a Saturday I stop to think whether it will be worth the effort after income tax is deducted," one man questioned said.

In a month of interviewing, the only person the Daily Mail found who took pride in his job was a salesman in Sleaford, Lincolnshire, and he was selling not a British product but a Dutch machine made in Austria.

Surprisingly, a great number of Britons, including factory workers, feel that a sharp dose of unemployment is just what this country needs to bring it to its senses.

Commenting on the present credit squeeze which has sent jobless figures soaring, a Manchester toolmaker said, "I reckon everyone in this shop has worked harder since unemployment started to go up."

The managing director of the same plant sums up what many Britons are thinking: "We don't want massive unemployment; that's no help to anyone. What we want is a steady, reasonably - sized pool of men out of work. Say about half a million —and it looks as if that's what we will have by Christmas."

MARTIN, who began his career in radio and then was graduated to the New York stage and ultimately Hollywood movies, believes actors are born, not made, and that the only time they need instruction is when they are stuck on a particular problem presented by a role.

"I went to school after somebody had shaken me up about my acting talent, but I realized later I could have come off just as well in a repertory group. I know guys who shouldn't have been accepted at Actors Studio," adds Martin.

It was a surge of self-confidence which established Martin in Hollywood. He was called in to read for a villain part in a "Peter Gunn" episode, but after seeing the script Martin told the director he would rather play the villain's brother.

"But the heavy is the better part," protested the director.

"Not if I play the brother," Martin answered.

HE GOT the brother part and so impressed producer Blake Edwards with his work that a season or two later Edwards remembered him for a costarring role in his "Mr. Lucky" series. This led to Martin's playing the psychopathic killer in an Edwards movie, "Experiment in Terror," which has also had a run on TV.

In his current Artemus Gordon role with CBS' "Wild Wild West," Martin is frustrated only by the time limitations such a series imposes. He is afraid that too often his wild character disguises become caricatures rather then portrayals.

EVEN SO, he would not trade his part for any other on TV at the moment. Where else could Martin be a Chinese mandarin one week and a Viennese dueling expert the next?

He naturally is aware that character acting does not bring with it the fame and riches which might be his if the Martin face and personality could be cultivated into a standard-type hero image.

"I'd much rather be another Olivier or Muni," he says, hopefully.

Youth, 16, Arrested In Death Of Woman

Most Britons Don't Like Leaders

LONDON — (NEA)—The average Briton thinks the men governing his country today are the worst set of politicians of the century.

A survey of the London Daily Mail gives black eyes to both the Labor government headed by Prime Minister Harold Wilson and the Conservative party opposition led by Edward Heath.

The survey, which covered 1,500 miles and included interviews with people in their homes, factories and pubs, finds that hardly anyone respects Wilson as a man, though a small number admire his policies. As for Heath, he has failed utterly to register.

—:—

WHEN MEMBERS of the House of Commons voted before the last election to raise their own salaries, it was hoped that the Commons would attract higher caliber men. But this has not happened, in the opinion of most Britons interviewed.

A typical reaction: "The standard of the House of Commons is lower than it has ever been."

In contrast, there is a growth of what the Daily Mail calls "British Gaullists" — people who long for a superman like France's President De Gaulle to cut through the mediocrity of politics and get things done, even at the expense of democratic rights.

A majority of people, however, dislike equally the two alternatives that have been put forward as the new role for Britain — closer association with America, or joining the European Common Market. In many ways Britain, in its present transition period, is more insular and isolationist than ever.

Foreigners often criticize the British for being work - shy. Obviously, they do not enjoy their jobs, nor do they take pride in their work, it is argued. In reply to these criticisms, a Hertfordshire worker points out, "If Chippendale had made nothing but right back legs of chairs he, too, would have been bored."

"Only those fortunate enough to obtain executive positions can ever hope to be stimulated by their work," he adds.

LACK OF incentives is another reason given by British workers for "soldiering" on the job. "Whenever I'm asked to work overtime on a Saturday I stop to think whether it will be worth the effort after income tax is deducted," one man questioned said.

In a month of interviewing, the only person the Daily Mail found who took pride in his job was a salesman in Sleaford, Lincolnshire, and he was selling not a British product but a Dutch machine made in Austria.

Surprisingly, a great number of Britons, including factory workers, feel that a sharp dose of unemployment is just what this country needs to bring it to its senses.

Commenting on the present credit squeeze which has sent jobless figures soaring, a Manchester toolmaker said, "I reckon everyone in this shop has worked harder since unemployment started to go up."

The managing director of the same plant sums up what many Britons are thinking: "We don't want massive unemployment; that's no help to anyone. What we want is a steady, reasonably - sized pool of men out of work. Say about half a million —and it looks as if that's what we will have by Christmas."

City Charts 15-Year Campaign

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago has charted a 15-year, $6-billion campaign to rebuild large areas of the city and to seek lasting solutions to its social and racial problems.

The long-range, comprehensive plan will carry the city through the year 2000 and includes the reshaping of virtually every area of its life and basic structure.

Hailed by Mayor Richard J. Daley as "a practical design for the city's future," it provides for better neighborhoods, more housing and schools, new parks and recreation facilities, more and faster transportation and a revitalized central core.

The plan was made up by the City Planning Commission.

Much of the cost, an estimated $400 million a year, will come from federal and state aid, Daley said. The program will double present expenditures for such improvements.

In the social sphere, the plan calls for measures to bring more white families back into the city, to open more job opportunities for all persons and to expand greatly the educational system at all levels.

It provides for open housing for all of Chicago's citizens and recommends that "fair housing" laws be adopted throughout the metropolitan area.

The plan envisions Chicago in 1980 as composed of more and younger families. It projects a rise in population to 3.7 million, including a nonwhite population of more than 1.5 million. But it maintains that general improvements in the city will attract more people, especially younger, middle-income families now gravitating toward the suburbs.

In Chicago, the plan sets these policies to provide for a "diverse, harmonious population."

—Reduce the loss of white families while accommodating the growth of the nonwhite population under the city's fair housing law.

—The use of redevelopment and conservation programs to achieve racial balance in neighborhoods threatened by massive racial transition.

—Local improvement plans to encourage established families to remain in their neighborhoods.

—The provision of "the broadest possible choice of housing cost and type to meet the needs of people, including low-income families and the elderly."

The problems of the near West Side, the location of the City Planning Commission's first specific area proposals, are as varied and complex as any in Chicago.

It was the site of racial rioting last summer and its southern and western sections are largely Negro.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Overweight To Perfect Shape

"Grandma, you have the prettiest shape I ever saw!" How's that for a compliment from a teen - age granddaughter? Today's story, with its happy ending, is so perfect it sounds like fiction. But it's for real, and so is the grandmother who reported.

"Four years ago I was 54 pounds overweight. I had gained much of the excess during the menopause. My blood pressure was over 200. I had arthritis, a slight heart condition and I was on the verge of glaucoma.

"Our doctor advised me to reduce. For years I had clipped and saved your columns. So with this information and God's help, I lost 54 pounds in eight months. My measurements were 42-38-42. Now they are 36-26-36. I am 5' 6" tall and weigh 136 pounds. My dress size is 14, from a size 42.

"MY BLOOD pressure is normal, arthritis behaving, my eye tension normal and my doctor has stopped the digitalis.

"After my husband saw the benefits of protective eating, he decided to get into the act and proceeded to trim down to 160. He was a letter man in college and it is good to see him trim and active again. Columnist Bill Gold had a little write-up about him in the Washington Post on Oct. 3.

"Since my husband's retirement, we walk miles on our farm and work in the flower and vegetable gardens. We do our floor exercises every morning and our isometrics. Last summer when the grandchildren came to visit us, we took them swimming, fishing, boating, crabbing and hiking and enjoyed every minute with them.

"Our son flew home for a visit in the spring of '63. Frankly, he was worried about us because we had been overdoing the cocktail hour as well as overeating. How happy he was to see us looking so well and slim and trim. My husband had stopped smoking. I never had smoked. We gave up alcohol altogether. Well, our son was so jubilant he went back to his home and plunged into his work with such enthusiasm he received the Outstanding Young Men of America Award for 1963-64.

"I AM SO happy and energetic — I actually feel as if I am walking on air! Now my husband likes to take me places. Our son and grandchildren are proud of us. I thought I should tell you how very much we appreciate your help. Keep up the good work and publish a book some day. God bless you," she concluded.

Doesn't her letter make your heart sing? It surely gave me a lift. On the book score, Stay Slim For Life by Kain and Gibson has now been completely revised. It is published by Doubleday & Company, Garden City, New York.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I make a good job of cleaning the inside of a coffee percolator's vertical tube?

A.—Use a man's pipe cleaner. Or, fill the percolator with water, add four tablespoons of salt, put the tube in, and let perk for 10 to 15 minutes. If this should dull the luster of the percolator, you can restore it by boiling vinegar in it, or water with pieces of raw lemon.

Q.—How can I remove match scratches from white painted surfaces?

A.—Rub with a cut lemon. Future scratches can be prevented by rubbing the surface lightly with petroleum jelly. The slightly oily surface will defy any attempts to scratch matches.

Q.—How can I make a cement for mending ivory articles?

A.—Melt together equal parts of gutta percha and ordinary pitch, and warm the pieces to be united before fastening them. My new household book deals with all sorts of such repairs.

Q.—How can I clean the blackened andirons in my fireplace?

A.—Remove those black deposits with white gasoline (do this out - of - doors, of course), and follow with a kitchen cleanser, and then complete the cleaning chore with metal polish. Clean any pitted areas with a vinegar - salt solution, then rinse quickly.

New Chicago

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

City Charts 15-Year Campaign

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago has charted a 15-year, $6-billion campaign to rebuild large areas of the city and to seek lasting solutions to its social and racial problems.

The long-range, comprehensive plan will carry the city through the year 2000 and includes the reshaping of virtually every area of its life and basic structure.

Hailed by Mayor Richard J. Daley as "a practical design for the city's future," it provides for better neighborhoods, more housing and schools, new parks and recreation facilities, more and faster transportation and a revitalized central core.

The plan was made up by the City Planning Commission.

Much of the cost, an estimated $400 million a year, will come from federal and state aid, Daley said. The program will double present expenditures for such improvements.

In the social sphere, the plan calls for measures to bring more white families back into the city, to open more job opportunities for all persons and to expand greatly the educational system at all levels.

It provides for open housing for all of Chicago's citizens and recommends that "fair housing" laws be adopted throughout the metropolitan area.

The plan envisions Chicago in 1980 as composed of more and younger families. It projects a rise in population to 3.7 million, including a nonwhite population of more than 1.5 million. But it maintains that general improvements in the city will attract more people, especially younger, middle-income families now gravitating toward the suburbs.

In Chicago, the plan sets these policies to provide for a "diverse, harmonious population."

—Reduce the loss of white families while accommodating the growth of the nonwhite population under the city's fair housing law.

—The use of redevelopment and conservation programs to achieve racial balance in neighborhoods threatened by massive racial transition.

—Local improvement plans to encourage established families to remain in their neighborhoods.

—The provision of "the broadest possible choice of housing cost and type to meet the needs of people, including low-income families and the elderly."

The problems of the near West Side, the location of the City Planning Commission's first specific area proposals, are as varied and complex as any in Chicago.

It was the site of racial rioting last summer and its southern and western sections are largely Negro.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Overweight To Perfect Shape

"Grandma, you have the prettiest shape I ever saw!" How's that for a compliment from a teen - age granddaughter? Today's story, with its happy ending, is so perfect it sounds like fiction. But it's for real, and so is the grandmother who reported.

Ida Jean Kain

"Four years ago I was 54 pounds overweight. I had gained much of the excess during the menopause. My blood pressure was over 200. I had arthritis, a slight heart condition and I was on the verge of glaucoma.

"Our doctor advised me to reduce. For years I had clipped and saved your columns. So with this information and God's help, I lost 54 pounds in eight months. My measurements were 42-38-42. Now they are 36-26-36. I am 5' 6" tall and weigh 136 pounds. My dress size is 14, from a size 42.

"MY BLOOD pressure is normal, arthritis behaving, my eye tension normal and my doctor has stopped the digitalis.

"After my husband saw the benefits of protective eating, he decided to get into the act and proceeded to trim down to 160. He was a letter man in college and it is good to see him trim and active again. Columnist Bill Gold had a little write-up about him in the Washington Post on Oct. 3.

"Since my husband's retirement, we walk miles on our farm and work in the flower and vegetable gardens. We do our floor exercises every morning and our isometrics. Last summer when the grandchildren came to visit us, we took them swimming, fishing, boating, crabbing and hiking and enjoyed every minute with them.

"Our son flew home for a visit in the spring of '63. Frankly, he was worried about us because we had been overdoing the cocktail hour as well as overeating. How happy he was to see us looking so well and slim and trim. My husband had stopped smoking. I never had smoked. We gave up alcohol altogether. Well, our son was so jubilant he went back to his home and plunged into his work with such enthusiasm he received the Outstanding Young Men of America Award for 1963-64.

"I AM SO happy and energetic — I actually feel as if I am walking on air! Now my husband likes to take me places. Our son and grandchildren are proud of us. I thought I should tell you how very much we appreciate your help. Keep up the good work and publish a book some day. God bless you," she concluded.

Doesn't her letter make your heart sing? It surely gave me a lift. On the book score, Stay Slim For Life by Kain and Gibson has now been completely revised. It is published by Doubleday & Company, Garden City, New York.

Send stamped, self - addressed long envelope for Ida Jean Kain's New Calorie Chart. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I make a good job of cleaning the inside of a coffee percolator's vertical tube?

A.—Use a man's pipe cleaner. Or, fill the percolator with water, add four tablespoons of salt, put the tube in, and let perk for 10 to 15 minutes. If this should dull the luster of the percolator, you can restore it by boiling vinegar in it, or water with pieces of raw lemon.

Q.—How can I remove match scratches from white painted surfaces?

A.—Rub with a cut lemon. Future scratches can be prevented by rubbing the surface lightly with petroleum jelly. The slightly oily surface will defy any attempts to scratch matches.

Q.—How can I make a cement for mending ivory articles?

A.—Melt together equal parts of gutta percha and ordinary pitch, and warm the pieces to be united before fastening them. My new household book deals with all sorts of such repairs.

Q.—How can I clean the blackened andirons in my fireplace?

A.—Remove those black deposits with white gasoline (do this out - of - doors, of course), and follow with a kitchen cleanser, and then complete the cleaning chore with metal polish. Clean any pitted areas with a vinegar - salt solution, then rinse quickly.

Junior Editors Quiz on PILGRIMS

QUESTION: Why do New Englanders celebrate Forefather's Day in December?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Forefather's Day, which is Dec. 21, is celebrated in honor of the Pilgrims, who landed at what is now Plymouth, Mass., Dec. 21, 1620. Not only the New Englanders, but all Americans revere the Pilgrims. Their motives in leaving the Old World for the dangers of a raw wilderness were based on a determination to live in a country where they could worship God in freedom. This has become one of America's most cherished conceptions. The Pilgrims left England in the Mayflower Sept. 16, 1620, and had a rough passage over the Atlantic. They landed first on the tip of Cape Cod, where Provincetown now stands. Finding the soil too poor for settlement, they sailed west again and arrived at Plymouth. The tradition is that they landed on the stone called Plymouth Rock, which can still be seen (lower right). Whether or not they landed on this particular rock, it remains a symbol for a great event. The first year was difficult; but the Pilgrims made friends with the Indians, and in the autumn of 1621 were able to celebrate the first Thanksgiving, a three-day festival.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Find a map of Massachusetts and look up the location of Provincetown and Plymouth, so you can better understand our Pilgrim story.

Sensational breakthrough!

Taster's Choice

A brand-new kind of coffee from a brand-new process called Freeze-Dried. Now you get the flavor of fresh-perked and the convenience of instant.

They said it couldn't be done. You couldn't combine the look, the flavor and the aroma of real fresh-perked coffee with the convenience of an instant. But that was before exclusive Taster's Choice Freeze-Dried process was discovered.

We perk a perfect cup of coffee.

Instant is Instant. Freeze-Dried is something else. They're as different as night from day. Freeze-Dried is not just a new way to make an instant. Freeze-Dried is a completely new kind of coffee. Coffee that looks, smells and tastes like your own fresh-perked. Now, for the first time, a dependably perfect coffee you can count on for perfect flavor. Time after time after time.

Freeze-Dried starts with perfect-perked coffee. We begin with freshly-ground, premium coffee beans. Then, our coffee is perked by experts using an exclusive new method. It brings perfect perking to perfect beans. The result? Hearty, robust coffee with the kind of flavor you'd like to get every time. And—as you'll discover—you'll be able to.

We freeze it to trap the flavor.

The big difference. Here's where our Taster's Choice Coffee leaves all others. We freeze it . . . quick as a wink . . . to forty degrees below zero. This sudden cold traps all the freshly-brewed coffee flavor and aroma. Next, all the ice is vacuumed away. Dry vacuumed, so not one bit of the flavor and aroma is lost.

We remove the ice—dry

The best comes last. What's left is pure, fresh-brewed coffee. In crystals, not powder. It looks like ground coffee, and needs no refrigeration. All you do is add boiling water, and presto! You have coffee with fresh-perked flavor: Taster's Choice Freeze-Dried Coffee.

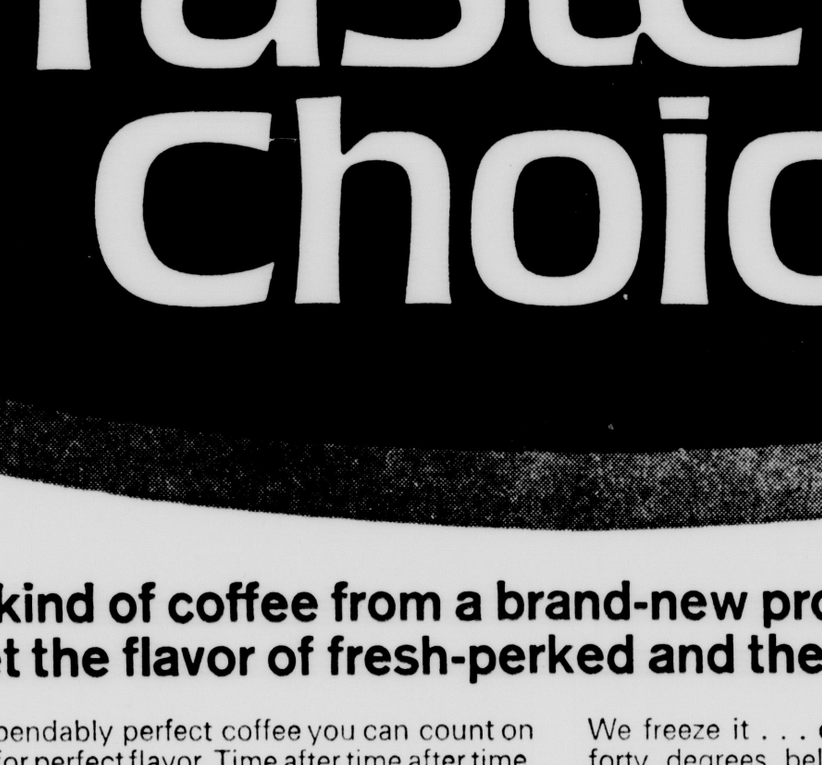
Just like that, you're a champion coffee maker every time. Taster's Choice has all the deep, rich flavor and heady coffee aroma you used to have to perk up a pot for, whenever you wanted real coffee. Try it. It's Freeze-Dried. Taster's Choice looks like, smells like and tastes like your own fresh-perked. Maybe even a bit better.

You just add boiling water.



A product of the Nestlé Co., Inc.

Looks, smells, tastes just like your own fresh-perked.
